Sinda Rilla “Cindy” (Maxwell) Maddux Obt.

The RF Maddux family bible reflects this spelling for Sinda Rilla “Cindy” (Maxwell) Maddux, as does her gravestone in the RF Maddux Family Cemetery, where she is listed as “Sinda R” not Cinderella. . Information from Cindy Maddux Sexton.

Mrs. Cinderilla Maddux, aged 72, wife of Robert F. Maddux, prominent and highly respected farmer of the 10th District, died at her home here this morning at eight o’clock, from influenza. She had been confined to her bed for more than two years with pulmonary tuberculosis, and when stricken a few days ago with influenza, was in such a weakened condition she was unable to withstand the disease.

Aunt Cinda, as she was affectionately known by hundreds, was seventy-two years of age, and had been a consistent and active member of the Methodist church here for more than forty years.

She was loved and highly respected by the entire community, and her exceeding sunny disposition, affectionate manner, and strict adherence to the principles of right and duty had endeared her to all she came in contact with.

She is survived by her husband, Robert F. Maddux of this place, also three sons, M. M. Maddux of Old Hickory, TN, Alfred Maddux of Casscoe, Ark., Ernest H. Maddux of this place and one daughter, Mrs. F. P. Jernigan, of Casscoe, Ark.

The body was interred in the family graveyard, near the Maddux home, after funeral services at the home Tuesday afternoon, at two o’clock.
