Tom got his nickname, "Black Tom" because he had black hair. He had an uncle, William Thomas Bean, who apparently also went by Tom, and his hair was red. So he was called "Black Tom" so as to differentiate from his red-headed uncle. His uncle was nicknamed "Red Tom".

Tom was a no-nonsense type of man for the most part. He did enjoy teasing people occasionally and when I was a child and visited him and my grandmother, he would wake me up by poking me with his cane. I'm still not sure if he just thought I should get up or if he was just happy we were there, but he always seemed happy when he did it.

Tom was a very hard working farmer and believed everyone should work and be honest. He had little tolerance for lazy folks or thieves and would not be shy about letting you know about it. He worked very hard all his life farming but in spite of the hard work had little, like most folks of his time and community.

For a time he went to Detroit, Michigan to work; he also worked for a time in Dayton, Ohio, at Siebenthaler's Nursery. In the days of the depression many from the community traveled north for work of any kind. He also worked at TTU, or Tennessee Polytechnic as it was called then. He was a custodian there.

He had a sharp wit and lived alone for many years after the death of his wife. He looked forward to the van that would pick him up along with other seniors to take him to the grocery or doctor - he enjoyed socializing with the others.

He was a very strong man. As an elderly man he caught himself on fire while burning trash. He lived in a hollow and a passerby saw the fire. He lost parts of some fingers and had a lot of severe burns. For a man of such advanced years it still amazes me that he survived it. He was made of strong stock. (findagrave).

Minnie Alley Gaw Bean was a beloved wife, mother and grandmother.

She was a Godly woman, the type that didn't put on airs, the type that lived her faith and was good and kind to everyone. The type of woman no one would have a negative thing to say about.

She was hard-working, helping her husband work in the fields and resourceful in taking care of her family. She canned whatever she could from the garden to feed her family and made some of the best pickles that my brother called "Ma Bean pickles" - we never tasted any as good. She was "Ma" to her grandchildren and she loved them all.

While rearing her own children she would read the Bible to them by the kerosene lamp. She would piece beautiful quilts to keep them warm.

She buried one daughter, Martha C., and it devastated the whole family. They lived very close to the cemetery where Martha C. was buried. For quite a while after Martha C.'s death often times "Ma" could not be found. My grandfather would send the other girls to look for her and they'd find Ma lying on Martha C.'s grave sobbing. My aunt Ruby said that this resulted in my grandfather moving the family farther away from the cemetery.

Ma made soap for a time to help make ends meet; she made cakes to send to her son while he was in the Navy during WWII. She was very talented at sewing and crochet. She was a wonderful cook - one of her children's favorites were her green beans and stewed potatoes. She was a tiny, soft spoken woman and a wonderful example of a Christian woman and we all wished we could have had her with us for many more years. (findagrave).

Calina and Eddie married on August 7, 1993 and enjoyed time together showing horses and traveling. 1999 brought two significant accomplishments for Eddie and Calina -the establishment of their business, Volunteer Heating and Cooling, and the arrival of their beloved daughter, Carley Faith. They soon taught Carley their love of the sport of cutting where she succeeded in reaching the top 15 in the world, to the great pride of her daddy who was by her side every step of the way. In addition to time with Calina and Carley, Eddie especially loved time with his brother Jason, sister-in-law Erin, and their children Luke, Noah, Ellie, and Lucy, including the times when Ellie and Lucy attempted to make him a ballerina. Eddie was known at Cookeville Boat Dock for his love of the lake and gatherings there where he showed off his grilling skills. He also thoroughly enjoyed attending cooking competitions with his competition barbeque team "the Snoring Hogs" with team members Brent Gentry and Tony Smith. He loved serving the community at the annual Lazy G stew cook every year, and his nephew Noah particularly loved the burgers his Uncle Eddie made. The cutting horse community across the country loved to see Eddie, Calina, and Carley at shows and enjoyed the close knit relationships they developed in and out of the show pen. In short, wherever Eddie was, the people around him benefited from his infectious laugh, his ability to fix anything, and his love of serving others.

Eddie is survived by Calina and Carley, father Eddie H. Gaw and wife Frida, mother Joyce Dennis Sutton and husband Danny, brother Jason Gaw and wife Erin, father-in-law and mother-in-law Ted and Anita Barnes, step-siblings Daniel Sutton and wife Rachel, Megan Swann and husband Ben, Christina Slemple and husband Jon, Carl Reece Nash, and Kimberly Nash, and several beloved uncles and aunts and nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by grandparents Howard and Flossie Gaw and Dexter and Myrtle Dennis.

Visitation will take place on Friday, March 22, 2024 at Washington Avenue Baptist Church from 5 to 8 p.m., and again on Saturday from 11 a.m. until the funeral service beginning at 1 p.m. with Pastor Mark Gaw officiating. Eddie will be laid to rest following the service at Smyrna Cemetery.

The pallbearers entrusted with the honor of carrying Eddie are Daryl Blair, Tony Smith, Chris Fox, Chris Hawkins, Steve Hawkins, Brent Gentry, Mark Brady, and Dawson Davidson. Luke and Noah Gaw will serve as honorary pallbearers, a testament to the special bond he shared with his nephews. Additional honorary pallbearers will be Mike Cass, Greg Cass, Jon Slemple, Bryce Gentry, Blake Gentry, and Will Roberts.

Little Eddie's passing leaves a void in the hearts of those who knew him, but his memory will be cherished through the stories of his kindness, his readiness to help, and the countless ways he made the world a better place. He will be remembered not just for the things he fixed with his hands, but for the lives he touched with his heart.

On June 15, 2023, Phillip Tinsley Hutcheson 74, of Knoxville TN made a peaceful exit, surrounded by the ones he loved and the ones who loved him. Phil was born in Ft Smith, Arkansas on May 20, 1949. He graduated from University of TN School of Dentistry in March 1975. He began practicing dentistry in Knoxville until his retirement in 2017.

Phil had a giving and loving spirit to family, friends, and strangers. He would wave and say hello to everyone, believing a simple kindness can change a person's life. He placed everyone else's feelings before his own and would rather be hurt than see someone else hurt. He cherished family and friends, would lend a helping hand to anyone in need. His compassion was unparalleled. Phil's mantra was "Never break a commitment " and he always stood by his word.

When Phil moved to Cookeville to care for his mother (Ma) he had no plans to live there but fell in love with the country life. His passion was always golf but later in life began to explore new adventures on the farm. Phil has always been very spiritual and in moving to the country his meditation and yoga reached a new level where he was practicing daily. He had the spirit of a child whose feeling of wonder never dwindled.

He loved gardening..planting vegetables, fruits, and flowers. He thought all plants, even the weeds, growing were beautiful. He even picked up a different kind of drill and began building shelves..night stands..and much more.

Another passion was traveling and he had just spent a month in Europe last September with his wife Susan where they fulfilled their dream trip. Phil's Dad was an Army Colonel so Phil spent a lot of his youth in Turkey, and traveling Europe. Fortunately he was able to see these places shortly before he died.

One of his guilty pleasures was eating ice cream every night in bed, and Susan had to guess what flavor with just a hint from a kiss after he had eaten a few spoonfuls.

He was boyish, playful, and always believed in signs from the universe and always interpreted them as good luck. Some of his frequent signs were always red tail hawks and cardinals which seem to be visiting all of the surviving family members. Today and forever he flies free! He lives on in all of our hearts.

Preceded in death by his parents; Colonel Phillip T. Hutcheson, Jr and Diana Elder Hutcheson

Survived by wife, Susan Hutcheson who shared 33 joyful years of the deepest love, happiness, and true partnership imaginable.

Daughters Heather Hutcheson and Amy Saletovic who loved and worshiped their amazing father always and forever. Beloved Son in-laws Almir Saletovic and Zak Stinnett. Loving Sons, Vic and Matthew Rogers and Matthew loving supportive Daughter in-law, Jessica Rogers Much loved two beautiful granddaughters , Lakin Rogers Britt and husband Kristian Britt, and Maddie Longmire. Loving grandsons, Weston, Holden, Jameson Rogers, and Landon Casey Beloved Aunt Suzanne Strecker, loved cousin, David Delahanty and many cousins and special friends.

Because of Phil's deep connection and love for all animals, especially his own the family asks in lieu of flowers you please donate to the Humane Society of the Tennessee Valley (<https://humanesocietytennessee.org/>)

Ollie Lavada Judd was the daughter of Steven Thomas and Dora Margaret Terry Judd. Her mother was sickly at a young age and "Vada" learned to make biscuits at around 7 years old - she said she would stand in a chair to reach the meal bin. All that experience proved beneficial to her family, as she was a wonderful cook. As one of her grandchildren, I never remember anything she cooked that was not good. Twenty-five plus years after her death, we still talk about her homemade biscuits and chocolate pie - the best!

Grandma was a special kind of woman - Godly for one. Kind to everyone, even when she was not treated kindly. She bore eleven children and many times Grandpa was sick and away from home in the hospital, and she had to work so hard in the fields, being at times "big as a barrel" as she called it (pregnant).

The younger girls were not allowed to cook because they were so poor nothing could afford to be wasted if they burned something. So Grandma had a very heavy load, keeping everyone fed, clothed, etc. Sometimes all they had was cornmeal gravy for supper.

She boiled white clothes in a iron kettle in the yard, and washed on a washboard until she got her first wringer washer. She didn't have running water inside the house until her kids were all grown and only had an indoor bathroom after my uncle built her a new house when she was probably in her 70s.

She learned to be creative out of necessity and sewed many clothes from flour sacks for her children. She loved to make quilts, which began out of necessity to keep her children warm and made many beautiful ones that are cherished still today. She even took cattails and put them in the oven until they burst, revealing a cottony substance inside. She used these to make filling for pillows. She made her own down pillows from ducks they had, killed a lot of chickens to fry, and canned whatever she could to see the family through the winter. They had large gardens to feed their big brood and all the children learned to work in the field very early.

She was never used to having nice material things and those were not important to her. When her son Charles built her a new house, she said it was too fancy for her! She was humble, soft-spoken, always encouraging her children and grandchildren to go to church - that was always her biggest concern - the souls of her family.

We still talk about what an inspiration she is to us, wonder how she managed to do all she did and keep everyone and everything together; how we wish we could be more like her, so good and pure and godly....she had no idea of the huge and long-lasting legacy she left us....

Thurman was the first child of Robert Wesley & Leona Knight Kinnaird. He learned the farming way of life at an early age and always worked hard.

He was a sharecropper for the majority of his life, also working at J.P. Hawkins Mill, which was located at the corner of Dodson Branch Road and Cummins Mill Road in Jackson County, Tennessee. He worked there for 50 cents a day or 4 pounds of lard, whichever was more needed that day. For a time, like many of his area, he travelled to Dayton, Ohio and worked at the Wonder Bread Factory. He also worked in Detroit, Michigan at U. S. Rubber. During the extra lean depression years he worked wherever he could find it, including building outhouses at schools for the WPA.

He was the father of eleven children and adored babies. He had a special gift or energy that could calm a crying baby. He was known around his community for being a good barber and people would come to him to get a haircut. He cut most of the family's hair for many years, including some of his grandchildren.

The main crop Thurman and his family raised was tobacco, although they raised nearly everything they ate except flour and coffee.

He was mechanically minded and good at tinkering and repairing things, most likely out of necessity for a poor sharecropper. He was very knowledgeable about plants & trees and their uses, knowledge probably passed down from other family members. He knew medicinal uses for plants and how to prepare them.

He always taught his children to be honest and to honor their word.

The song by Larry Sparks "Sharecropper's Son" always reminds me of my grandpa Thurman, especially this line

"We moved here from somewhere when I was fourteen
Worked this poor ground for bacon and beans
Landlord told me, hard times is near Didn't mean a thing 'cause they're already here".

Hard times were all he knew most of his life, but he did his best.

Thurman dropped the extra "i" in his name, as several in the family and extended family have done. So even in the same branch of the family you will find that spelling variation.

Personal note from the family:

The verse Ecclesiastes 9:10 states "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might" embodies James' life. Anyone that knew him understood this. There was not a day of his life that he did not put 110% of everything he had into what he was doing. From being a husband, father, grandfather, Christian, employee, to personal projects (and there were many of them), he loved his life. He was always working around the house, in his wood shop, at the church building, or helping a friend. He enriched our lives as well as so many others. We will miss him so much, but time we shared with him will never be forgotten.

We would like to thank all the friends, family, and health care workers that help and shown their love for James, especially during the last few years of his life.

Visitation and funeral services for James will be at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. The funeral service will be on Friday, July 14th at 3:00pm. Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Mrs. Fowler Wright, mother, Rt. 1, Cookeville, TN).

Jesse Delmas Lovell, age 73 beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, friend and long-time business man in Cookeville gave up his 2 and a half year battle with cancer on Saturday May 2, 2015. He was at home and surrounded by his three children, David, Lisa and Mark and his wife/soulmate Carole.

He was born October 7, 1941 in Rhea County, Tennessee, at home, the fourth of five children and the only son of Holman and Cecil Jackson Eldridge Lovell.

When he was three years old his father was killed in a forestry accident. From that day forward, his mother assured him that he had a direct line to God because he became an orphan when he lost his father. Psalm 68:5 says of God “I will be a father to the fatherless and a defender to widows.” He was raised believing this and never doubted its’ truth for him.

He met his wife Carole at Echo Valley Pool and they were inseparable for their next two years of college. They married in 1964. He graduated from Tennessee Tech in 1965 and the next 9 years were spent working for the Ralston Purina Company.

In 1973, he bought the Ralston Purina Dealership in Cookeville. Lovell Farm and Home Center became the go to place for farmers, gardeners and horsemen for the next 25 years.

He planned to retire and spend time with his horses and his grandchildren. However, he had shares in American Lift Elevator Company in Johnson City, Tennessee. He took over this company and rescued it until it could be sold.

Again he thought he might retire and spend time with his horses and his grandchildren, his two greatest passions in life. However, his mother in law became ill and he did what he usually did. He served his family and the community and took over the management of Echo Valley Pool and Recreation and Echo Valley Apartments.

Jesse Lovell was a man of many talents.

Most of all, Jess was devoted to his Heavenly Father. He was a faithful church member all of his life and for the past 10 years he was very active in Life Church.

Served as Deacon and Sunday School Teacher.

He is proceeded in death by his father and mother and his younger sister Connie Jean.

He was devoted to his father and mother-in law, Fowler and Martha Wright and was always there to help during their illnesses and deaths.

He was proud of his three children David, Lisa and Mark.

Jesse Lovell was a man full of faith.

He did many random acts of kindness that others did not see.

He is survived by his wife, his three children David Lovell and his life partner Amanda Shay Ennis, Lisa Lovell, and Mark and wife Kerry Lovell, four grandchildren Savanna Lovell, and Bailey, Molly and Daniel Ebersole all of Cookeville; three remaining sisters, Joan Still, Johnny Maupin both of Cleveland, TN and Wanda Wilkey of Hixon, TN.

Jesse Lovell is finally retired.

Services are arranged by Hooper, Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home.

Pastor Bobby Davis and Bro James Edward Scott will officiate.

*See Michael Shipley buried in Smyrna Cemetery.

The death of Esq Harvey R Shipley, which occurred on Wednesday of last week at his home near Cookeville, came as a great shock. After only a few days illness influenza, pneumonia developed and he survived less than a week.

Harvey Richard Shipley spent most of his life in the First Civil District of Putnam Co. TN. In his childhood he lost his Father and was early thrown upon his own resources. Throughout his life he was possessed of great energy and industry, also of a degree of resolution and determination to which failure was unknown. He was one of Putnam County's largest and most successful farmers. He was a man of rare native ability. His educational opportunities in youth were limited, but nature was lavish in her endowment, and his keenness of intellect, rare good judgment, and wide range of information rendered him a self-educated man. He was one of those rare individuals who never spent an hour in idleness. He never knew the meaning of a vacation. He had no diversions. His pleasure and enjoyment came from constant uninterrupted labor and toil. He found pleasure in useful and productive labor. He served for twelve years as a Justice of the Peace for the First District. During his period of service he was an active and influential member of the County Court. A bold and positive character, influenced only by his own convictions, no one was ever in doubt as to his views, or stand, on any public issue.

Michael Shipley

THOMPSON, W. P.: W. P. Thompson died suddenly at his home five miles northeast of town Sunday night, July 2, 1905, and was buried at Salem on the following day. He was well known throughout the county, and was a highly respected citizen. He served one term as register, retiring from that office in 1902. [Date 7/5/1905, Vol. III, No. 22, Page 1]

THOMPSON, WINCHESTER P.: Winchester P. Thompson was born July 2, 1846 and died July 2, 1905. He died on his 59th birthday. He was a noble and generous man. He embraced Christ in his 20th year and lived ever after a child of God. He was an elder of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Post Oak until a few years ago, when he withdrew from the church. He had been afflicted with rheumatism, which bowed him down, and his sufferings must have been very great, but he bore up under them all with the patience of a true Christian. Mr. Thompson had been a farmer by occupation, although he was register of Putnam county for four years, commencing in 1898. While holding that office he tried to do his duty as near as any man could. He gained many warm friends by that office. He married Miss Sarah Brown Aug. 16, 1868. She still survives him. Out of this union there were six children born, three boys and three girls, all of whom are living. [Date 8/2/1905, Vol. III, No. 26, Page 2]

Bobby Joe Wiley, age 81, was born September 12, 1938 in Jackson County, Tennessee to the late Clarence and Sarah Lou (Mayberry) Wiley.

Bobby spent his youth living in both Cookeville, Tennessee and Detroit, Michigan. He graduated from Detroit's Central High School in 1956, where his passions were football, baseball, basketball and volleyball. Even though he graduated from a Detroit school, his love for middle Tennessee and the southeast in general only grew more endearing the longer he was away.

Bobby entered a life-long career in law enforcement when he joined the Detroit Police Department in 1961. However, shortly after joining the police department and completing the Detroit Police Academy, he was drafted by the US Army. Based on his civilian profession, he became a Military Police Officer and was sent to Germany, where he would meet the love of his life, Ilse Mangl.

As Bobby's enlistment was coming to an end, he and Ilse decided to get married prior to leaving Germany. The young couple was betrothed on November 6, 1963, just prior to Bobby's military discharge and return trip to the United States.

Upon returning home, Bobby resumed his work with the Detroit Police Department. Due to his positive attitude and exemplary work ethic, he spent many years assigned to the Tactical Mobile Unit, which was a specialized team that concentrated patrol efforts in high crime areas. He received countless awards for bravery and service above and beyond the call of duty.

Early in life, he developed a passion for the outdoors, especially raising and training bird dogs, specifically English Setters and English Pointers, and hunting Bobwhite Quail. He often said that his love for the sport was so great that simply watching a well-trained bird dog in the field was one of his greatest delights.

In 1968, Bobby entered Federal law enforcement service as a Special Agent with the IRS – Alcohol Tax Unit (ATU), the agency which would later become the modern day Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF). His first post of duty was in Somerset, Kentucky, where he fondly remembered chasing bootleggers throughout the south-central Kentucky hills.

In 1970, Bobby and Ilse decided that it was time to start a family and Steve came along shortly thereafter. Realizing that Steve needed a sibling and a best friend, David came along in 1973.

In 1976, the ATF decided that Bobby's talents were needed in the Cincinnati, Ohio Field Office, and the family moved to Florence, Kentucky, where they lived until Bobby's retirement. During his time in northern Kentucky, he developed a passion for watching his boy's play sports at Boone County High School and became an avid fan of University of Kentucky basketball and University of Tennessee football. His love of the two college teams was often a joking point of contention with his northern co-workers, and friendly sports wagers were always had.

Bobby worked numerous high-profile cases, including successfully investigating and prosecuting several explosives and arson incidents, in addition to multiple firearms related offenses. Bobby retired from ATF, with honors, as a Senior Special Agent on December 31, 1989.

Upon retirement from the ATF, Bobby, Ilse, Steve and David moved back to his beloved Cookeville, Tennessee. He and Ilse were delighted when Steve married Vicki Lee Prater in 1993, and even happier when his grandchildren Aaron "Tyler" and Haylee Nicole were born a few years later. The family grew even more when David married Angel Buchanan in 2001, and brought additional grandchildren Ulrich Holden and Aiden Thatcher shortly after.

During retirement, Bobby and Ilse enjoyed spending time with their beloved friends, family and their grandchildren. Bobby spent several of his retirement years working as a security guard with Russell Stover Candies in Cookeville.

Bobby was extremely proud that both his boys would follow in his career footsteps, both starting in local law enforcement. He was even more delighted when both made the jump to ATF, with Steve starting in Memphis, Tennessee in 1999, and David starting in Johnson City, Tennessee in 2001. To Bobby's delight, both Steve and David became Senior Special Agents and plan on retiring from ATF with distinguished careers.

Just prior to Bobby and Ilse's 50th wedding anniversary, he lost his beloved Ilse, who passed away on May 26, 2013. He fondly described Ilse as the finest woman he ever met and the only woman he ever loved.

Bobby departed this life to rejoin the love of his life Ilse in heaven on February 10, 2020. He is survived by sons Steve (Vicki Lee), of Toney, Alabama, David (Angel) of Hayden, Alabama; grandchildren Aaron Tyler and Haylee Nicole, both of Toney, Alabama, and Ulrich and Thatcher, both of Hayden, Alabama; brothers Elmer (Dorothy), of Houston, Texas and R.B., of Cookeville, Tennessee; and numerous nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his wife, Ilse; his parents, Clarence and Sarah Lou; a brother, Eunice; and sisters Beulah Wright and Bessie Allen.

The next five years he served as Supervisor of Diagnostic and Educational Services and Supervisor of Educational Day Program for Central Alabama Youth Services in Selma. During this time, he earned his master's in school administration from the University of Alabama. After "hearing the calling," he earned his doctorate in special education in 1979 from the University of Alabama. That same year, Tennessee Technological University advertised for his specialty in learning disabilities and gifted education, so Tom moved to Cookeville to pursue his career in teaching and his passion for the Tennessee Walking Horse. He was employed at TTU for more than 30 years.

His career, as well as the life's work, was in the field of inspiring future and present teachers of special education to love the field of teaching children with disabilities. He was tenured and held the rank of full professor. For more than 10 years, he was the director of the "Summer Program for Educational Development," where children with learning disabilities and children who were gifted came together during two weeks in the summer to learn together and foster their common bonds. He was also the program director of Tennessee Tech's "Science Enrichment for Females" to increase participation of females in the fields of math and science. For 22 years, he directed the Special Education Teacher's Institute, funded by the Tennessee State Department of Education, where teachers teaching on waivers could become certified in special ed.

He served as president of the Alabama Association of Children with Learning Disabilities, 1975-1978, where he was the recipient of the Outstanding Past President Award. He served as president of the Upper Cumberland Council for Exceptional Children, 1980-1981. He also served as faculty advisor to the Student Council for Exceptional Children for many years. He was nominated for TTU's Outstanding Teaching Faculty Award on four different occasions. He served as president for the Tennessee Association for Gifted (TAG) in the early 90s. He also served as director of "Base 10" (Be a Special Educator in Tennessee), a state funded program to help persons become special education teachers.

Outside of his career and family, his love of genealogy, history, antiques and Tennessee Walking Horses were his driving forces. He raised, trained and showed several outstanding show horses and colts. Among his winners were "Winston's Big Secret," Reserved World Champion Owned and Trained Walking Horse, "The Hickory Stick," World Champion Yearling Colt and Reserved World's Champion Yearling, "Mitchie's KV," 1987 3-year-old Plantation World Champion, and, most recently, "Fashion's Sunnie Attraction," 2008 FOSH North American Champion and 2008 NWA High Point Versatility Champion.

He was very proud of his membership in the Sons of the American Revolution, where he served as a charter member and vice president of the Lt. William P. Quarles Chapter of Cookeville and the Sons of Confederate Veterans. He was also a member of several other history-related and heredity societies. His love of history, genealogy, antiques, horses and family, along with teaching and his many students, will be his lasting legacy.

Man Shot 8 Times, 'Robbed' in Home by Bill Austin Tennessean State Correspondent
The Tennessean, 29 Oct. 1976

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. - Authorities worked through the night last night investigating the death of George Claude Wright, 74, who was shot eight times in his chest Wednesday and apparently robbed. Putnam County Sheriff Jerry Abston and agents for the Tennessee Bureau of Criminal Identification were reportedly close to making an arrest in the killing. Wright, a prominent retired farmer, was found Wednesday lying in a pool of blood in his Bangham community home by his son, Stanley, 19. Young

Wright first thought his father was hemorrhaging from permanent tracheotomy wound that resulted from a cancer operation. After the Putnam County Ambulance Service arrived, attendants discovered the bullet wounds. Abston and TBI agent Tom Moore said that at least 13 bullets may have been fired inside the Wright home, located about six miles north of Cookeville on Highway 136. The sheriff said Wright's wallet was missing from his clothing, but added that he was not known to carry large sums of money.

The victim's wife, Laura, told friends yesterday that a 50-record collection and several cassette tapes were also missing from the house, but otherwise nothing appeared disturbed. Officer said the doors to the house were closed, but unlocked and there were no signs of a struggle. Investigators canvassed the Bangham community yesterday, talking to neighbors and searching for the weapon used in the death. Abston said Wright was likely shot with a 22-caliber pistol or rifle. An Autopsy was performed Wednesday night at the Cumberland Medical Center in Crossville, but Abston said the complete report will not be available until next week.

Wright was last seen alive about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at a cafe his wife and son operate on East Board Street, just off the courthouse square in Cookeville. When he left, he told his wife he would be back around 1 p. m. His son was returning home from work when he found the body about 3:45 p.m. Services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Whitson Funeral Home. Burial will be in Smyrna Cemetery, in Putnam County.

Survivors, in addition to his widow and son, include two daughters, Mrs. Elaine Willmeyer and Mrs. Wanda Binns, of Ohio; five sisters, Miss Bessie Wright, Mrs. Ruby Roberson and Mrs. Mildred Jones, Nashville, Mrs. Anna Moore, Cookeville, and Mrs. Jere Wilmoth, Cookeville; four brothers, B.C. Wright, Dayton, Ohio, John T., Martin and Fowler Wright, Cookeville; Cookeville; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Slaying Guilt Plea Expected

by Bill Austin, Tennessean State Correspondent.

The Tennessean, 19 Jan. 1978

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. - A young Cookeville man charged with the multiple shooting death of an elderly Putnam County farmer may plead guilty in a court appearance today, according to a state prosecutor.

James Randy Choate, 19, a 1976 Putnam County Senior High graduate, is charged with first degree murder in the rifle slaying last Oct. 27 of George Claude Wright, 75, who worked part time at a Cookeville service station.

Investigators said Wright was shot eight times in the upper chest during what appeared to be a robbery at his home.

Choate was arrested Dec. 29, after a portable tape recorder believed taken from the Wright home was sold.

Assistant District Attorney General Laken Mitchell said he expects Choate to plead guilty today in a appearance before Circuit Court Judge Leon Burns. However, Choate's attorney, Aaron P. Thompson, would not confirm that such a decision had been reached.

Choate has been undergoing evaluation at the Middle Tennessee Mental Health Institute in Nashville.

Martha Ann "Jackie" Green Wright, 87, died at Cookeville Regional Medical Center, on Jan. 1, 2011. She went home to be with the Lord surrounded by her family following a long illness.

She was born Sept. 29, 1923, in Dayton, Ohio, to Brice Jimmy and Lily Ann Ray Green.

Mrs. Wright was a member of Cookeville First Assembly.

She graduated Algood High School, in 1941, and worked during World War II at National Cash Register (NCR) in Dayton, Ohio. She moved to Putnam County following the war and worked for Southern Continental and General Telephone companies for 35 years. She was secretary to five different general managers; and at one time, did all the billing for the phones in this region.

She cooked for farm hands during those years; and like the Proverbs 31 woman, she arose early to cook a hearty meal for them before going to work. She was washing the dishes and planning the next day's "dinner" until bedtime.

She was also a Putnam County business woman for 50 years. She and her husband purchased Echo Valley Swimming Pool, in 1960. They installed the first filtration system, upgraded the pool to meet codes and added a catering business, a picnic pavilion, gazebo for musicians and slides for the pool and playground equipment making Echo Valley a favorite recreation spot for area children and their families.

She built a large picnic business and served area industries including Averitt Express, Fleetguard, Duriron, Oster, Wilson's, Perdue Farms, Cookeville Regional Medical Center and many others. Her favorite picnics were area churches, and she never turned down a church picnic no matter what their budget was. She and her husband, as well as countless others, were baptized in Echo Valley Swimming Pool.

She was known for her hospitality and her home cooking. She loved cooking for her lifeguards and other employees and had a place at her table for sales people, employees, friends, family and anyone who happened to drop by to see her. It did not matter if it was mealtime, Martha, or "Jackie" to those who knew her best, thought everyone needed to have something to eat.

She and her husband also owned and operated several area restaurants during the years, including the Midway, NuWay and the Tennessee Tech Diner.

She is loved by many and will be long remembered for her kindness, generosity and love of God by those who knew her.

Mrs. Wright was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, 1st Lt. Fowler Lee Wright (a Putnam County master Ffarmer); her beloved aunt, Ila Murphy; and close cousins, Lavada Mayberry, Maxine Clinger; and her lifetime friend, Jonnie Shelton.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Carole and Jess Lovell; grandson David Wright Lovell and his special friend Amanda Ennis; granddaughter and her husband, Lisa and Scott Ebersole; grandson and his wife, Mark and Kerry Lovell, all of Putnam County. She leaves six great-grandchildren, Daniel, Molly, Bailey, Andrew, and Amanda Ebersole, and Savanna Lovell; sister-in-law, Alvina Wright, of Cookeville; niece and husband, June and Steve Barrett, of Johnson City; nieces, Ellen McGuggin, Phyllis Wilmoth, both of Algood, Evelyn Hand, of Clarksville, Jean White, of Nashville; her devoted caregiver, Frances Johnson; and countless other friends and family.

Funeral service will be 1 p.m., Jan. 6, 2011, at Cookeville First Assembly, with Pastor Eddie Turner, Pastor

David Corley and The Rev. Charles Hutchinson officiating. Graveside services and interment will immediately follow, in Smyrna Cemetery, with Pastor Bobby Davis officiating.

Active pallbearers will be David Lovell, Mark Lovell, Scott Ebersole, Steve Barrett, Bob Johnson and Kevin Bowling.

Mrs. Wright's family will receive friends 5-8 p.m., Jan. 5, at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home and from 10 a.m. until service time, on Jan. 6, at the church.

Memorial contributions may be made Cookeville Pregnancy Center, 694 S. Willow Ave., Cookeville, Tenn. 38501.
