Mrs. C. M. Mitchell Dies At Her Home:

The death of Mrs. C. M. Mitchell, which occurred at her home here Wednesday morning at 11:25 a.m., came as a shock to this community. She went to the St. Thomas hospital in Nashville several days ago and learned she had cancer of the stomach and returned home last Saturday, her death was unexpected.

Mrs. Mitchell was 52 years of age and had been a faithful member of the Methodist church for the past 20 years.

Funeral services were held in the school house Friday afternoon, June 27 at 2 o'clock by Henry Puckett. The large crowd that attended her funeral and the many beautiful floral offerings showed the love and esteem in which she was held. Interment took place in the Silver Point cemetery. Her remains were laid beside her son, Charles, who died four years ago.

She leaves a husband, one daughter, Mrs. J. D. Spitzer of Harrisonburg, VA, five sisters, Mrs. J. E. McCormick of Chattanooga, Mrs. Lon Jones of Wilder, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell of Cookeville, Mrs. John Young and Mrs. John Helms of this place, two brothers, Seldon Scudder of New York City and Isaac Scudder of Old Hickory, two grandchildren, two nieces, four nephews and a host of friends to mourn her death.

Martha Ruth (Lentz) Sauceman Obt.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Martha Ruth Lentz Sauceman, 66, will be held Wednesday, July 21, at 7 p.m. from the chapel of Cookeville Funeral Home.

Family will receive friends Wednesday from 4 p.m. until time of services at the funeral home.

Burial will be Thursday, July 22, at 9 a.m. in the Silver Point Cemetery.

Mrs. Sauceman passed away peacefully Tuesday, July 17, 2010, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center after a valiant battle with cancer.

She was born Aug. 7, 1943, the only child of the late Nathan George and Vergie Ruth Lentz.

Mrs. Sauceman retired from the nursery business and enjoyed reading, gardening and spending time with her family and friends. She was a loving wife, mother, grandma and friend, but above all, she was a faithful Christian who shared her Christian witness with all whom she came into contact.

Her family includes her husband of almost 50 years, Clifford Sauceman (whom she married Sept. 13, 1960); two sons and daughters-in-law, Norm and Sandy Sauceman of Cookeville and Nathan and Kay Sauceman of Silver Point; a daughter, Nancy Phares of Arizona; and 10 grandchildren, Jarrett Sauceman of the Navy in Kitspa, Wash., Taylor Sauceman and Matthew Rodgers, both of Cookeville, Mara, Alex, Hunter, Jordan and Michael Sauceman of Silver Point and Christopher and Justin Parrish of Arizona.

Pallbearers will be family and friends.

Memorial donations may be made to Relay for Life or the American Cancer Society.

Pastor Tommy Blomgren will officiate the services.

Cookeville Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

John Tucker Obt.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday for John Tucker, 87, oldest attorney of the Putnam County Bar Association, who died Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Buna Brown, in Double Springs after a long illness.

Services were conducted at the Double Springs Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Dow Ensor. Burial was in the Silver Point Cemetery.

Native of this county, Mr. Tucker was born and reared in the Silver Point community, where he lived until moving to Double Springs about 50 years ago.

His father, Louis Tucker, a Confederate soldier, was killed in battle when his son was only a few years old.

Shortly after reaching manhood, Mr. Tucker was elected Justice of the Peace for the Thirteenth District and, while still in his twenties, was elected chairman of the county court. He was admitted to the bar more than 60 years ago. He continued to practice law until his retirement a few years ago.

After moving to Double Springs he was again elected Justice of the Peace of the Seventh District, an office held until five years ago.

Besides his daughter, survivors include two sons, Albert Lewis and Ernest Boyd Tucker, both of Double Springs; four other daughters, Miss Mary Ann Tucker, Double Springs, Mrs. Carmie Carr, Mrs. Johnnie Randolph, and Mrs. Jessie Booker, all of Detroit, MI; a half-brother, W. C. Stewart, of Boma, TN.
