William Bean was actually married first about 1890 to a lady whose maiden name is believed to be Rosie Johnston in North Carolina. Since the 1890 census and other records are missing it cannot be documented. However, I do have the death certificate of the daughter from that marriage - Maude Bean Daniels. She was raised by her grandparents (William's parents) in North Carolina. Not much is known of this first marriage but apparently Maude did not have much contact with either parent. Her mother Rosie may have died 1949 in Georgia. March 03, 2012 Find A Grave Contributor Patricia Gregg.

Funeral services for Mrs. Delphia Frasher will be held on Saturday, March 9, 2024, from the Chapel of Whitson Funeral Home with Josh Hodum officiating. Visitation with the family will be held only on Saturday from 11:00am till the service time at 1:00PM. Burial will follow at the West Cemetery (North). The family has asked that in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the West Cemetery (North-Bangham Community) cemetery fund.

Delphia Frasher, 93 of Brookdale Senior Living in Englewood Ohio passed away peacefully at Miami Valley Hospital on February 28th.

On August 6, 1930, in a little house adjacent to Mill Creek in northern Putnam County Tennessee, Willis and Ona (Roberts) Allen welcomed what would be their only child into the world. A baby girl that they named Delphia Ethelene. Ona’s grandpa suggested her first name and although Ona disliked it, her compassion and fondness for the old civil war soldier won in the end. She honored his request. However, for the remainder of her life, Ona would refer to her girl as “Ethel”.

Sometime later the Allen’s moved to Dayton, Ohio where Ethel met Homer Frasher. They married on March 19th, 1949 and a year later welcomed a son, James, or Jimmy. The family moved back to Cookeville after Homer retired from General Motors.

Ethel, or Delpha as she was known to some, dedicated her life to caring for her family. Much of this time was spent caring for her mom, without resentment or regret. She never viewed it as her duty or obligation. For her, it was a labor of love and privilege. They were best friends. She was driven to turn her passion into purpose using her love of antiques and collectibles. She truly enjoyed the hustle, whether it was selling her wares at the antique malls or bidding on a great find at the auction house. She enrolled in courses that allowed her to become certified and continually educated herself, eventually making her a valuable resource of antiquities; a formidable force skilled in the art of the haggle. Her sharp intellect and savvy business sense could sometimes be intimidating to anyone sitting on the other side of the table. Unless it was her supper table and you were one of her people. The table was where it was easiest for her to show her love. A big plate full of biscuits and gravy or helpings of chicken and dumplings were X’s and O’s with calories. She would just as easily send someone out to get fish or chicken. Her solace was achieved when the meals were consumed and the bellies were full.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Allen of Cookeville, TN and her husband of 39 years, Homer Lee Frasher. She is survived by her son, James R (Deborah) Frasher, her grandchildren James L (Dawn) Frasher, Johnathan (Anissa) Frasher, Diana (Eric) Laquerre and step-grandson Todd (Ashlee) Yount. Additionally, she leaves behind her great-grandchildren, who consider themselves fortunate enough to have been present and witnessed on more than one occasion, the flawless delivery of a backhanded compliment from such a master of sass, their grandma Frasher. Travis (Kelsey), Taylor, and David Frasher, Courteney Frasher, Jaden Phy and Logan, Bailey and Owen Laquerre. Also step-gr grands Haddie, Holland, Hazel, Henley and Brandie (Will) Hilton.

(Source: Tennessee State Marriage record, Putnam Co., TN, pg. 377, #4550– J. A. Gentry married 23 October 1926, Putnam Co., TN to Alva Swearengin).

Supposedly, James Alman Gentry was living in California by the time he died in 1950. His wife Alva brought his body back to Tennessee for burial. When Alva died in 1991, she was buried in California according to a family member. Her daughter Jane E. Gentry Daughtry (Mrs. Walter Ollie Daughtry) died at the age of 43 on August 6, 1976, in Orange County, California.) If you have the name of the cemetery where Alva or Jane were buried, I'd appreciate an email. (findagrave).

James's third wife was Alva C. Swearengin who was born on May 24, 1907, in Tennessee to Palo Milton Swearengin and Caldonia "Callie" Jane Burris Swearengin (buried in Dodson Branch Cemetery in Jackson County, Tennessee). James and Alva were married on October 23, 1926, in Putnam Co, Tennessee. In 1940 James and Alva were living in Jackson County in the home of Alva's parents. Living with them was their only child Jane E. Gentry who was born on June 6, 1923, in Tennessee. Later, perhaps between 1947 and 1950, James and Alva supposedly moved to Orange County, California, perhaps to live near their daughter Jane E. Gentry Daughtry. (note: Alva continued to live in California after James's death in 1950 and even after Jane's death in 1976, dying herself on May 7, 1991, in Orange County, California.

Thurman Lee Webb Dies In Camp Davis, NC:

Thurman Lee Webb, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb, of the Dodson Branch Community, Ninth Civil District, died at Camp Davis, NC, Friday from over heat, according to information received by his parents.

The body arrived from Camp Davis Monday night accompanied by military escort, and was taken to his parents' home at Dodsons Branch. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Dodson Branch Baptist Church of which he was a member. Burial was in West Cemetery.

Cpl Webb was recently transferred from a military camp in MA where he had been stationed for several months doing office work, and had entered the Officers Training School at Camp Davis where he had just started his preliminary training preparatory to becoming a commissioned officer in the Army.

Previous to being inducted into the Army Cpl Webb was employed by the Dayton Union Railroad Company, Dayton, OH as ticket clerk and general assistant in the office which position he had held for several months after working his way from the bottom. Besides his office work with the railroad he was a junior science student at the University of Dayton and was majoring in mathematics and taking physics. He was considered an exceptional student by the dean of the University.

Cpl Webb graduated from the Jackson County High School in the spring of 1940 as valedictorian of his class. He ranked high as a student throughout his high school years, and was held in the highest esteem by the members of the high school faculty and the entire student body. He attended Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, Cookeville during 1940-41 where he made an exceptional record as a student, and won a scholarship to the University of Dayton, Dayton, OH.

Cpl Webb was inducted in the Army at Fort Oglethorpe, GA, December 16, 1942 and received his training in eastern camps. He registered February 16, 1942 and physically examined at Dayton, OH, October 30, 1942 and was placed in A1 by the board November 4, 1942.

He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb, two brothers and one sister.
