Her death takes from us one of a friendly disposition and lovable nature and fills us with deepest sorrow. We are unable to understand why God in His wisdom should take from the activities of life one so young and promising. We deeply deplore her death, and commend her life as an example to all. BROWN, ISAAC: Isaac Brown Dead -- Isaac Brown was born Jan. 17, 1817 and died at his home three miles south of Cookeville, Sept. 17, 1896. He had been married three times and the father of fourteen children and had been a warm, consistent, shouting member of the C. P. Church for 58 years. Uncle Isaac, as he was familiarly known was an honorable and well beliked citizen, always ready to bear his full share in the burdens of life; sober, moral and industrious; a noble example for the rising generation. His family of children are all grown and most of them heads of worthy and interesting families who doubtless have profited by his manly example. He had suffered for many months with cancer in the mouth, but bore up under the terrible ordeal with Christian fortitude until relieved by the angel of love and mercy. He died as he had lived, in the triumphs of a loving faith in the blessed Redeemer and his right to a home with blest beyond the river of death. Peace to his memory. The family will receive friends from 9 a.m. until the time of services.

Iva Vernell Brown was born Oct. 6, 1936, in Putnam County, Tennessee, to the late Wade and Daisy Pendergrass Bray.

She passed away Thursday, Nov. 16, 2023, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center surrounded by her loving family.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Clifton Brown; two sisters, Dimple Chaffin and Dean Reed Vest; two brothers, J.D. Bray, and Leamon Bray; and two sisters-in-law, Pearl Montgomery and Lorene Robinson.

Her family includes her two daughters, Judy Miller (Bob) and Jackie Dyer (Danny); four grandchildren, Rob Miller (Kelsy), Amanda Childers (Steven), Luke Eldridge (Melissa) and Amy Dyer; great-grandchildren, Wynn Miller, Ace Miller, Jude Eldridge, Jovi Eldridge, Clint Julian (Britian) and Lexie Capps (T.C.); great-great-grandchildren, Axton Julian, Brecken Julian, Bo Capps and Tate Capps; sister-in-law, Ann Hicks; a very special friend, Dallas Frazier; and many other family members.

Nell was the strongest woman you would ever meet. She was known well in this community, not only for her larger-than-life personality, and angelic voice but also for not holding back her opinion and telling it like it is. She was very personable and never met a stranger.

She was born and raised in the Poplar Grove community. Her claim to fame was being born at Hidden Hollow and keeping their milk and butter in the mouth of the spring that creates the falls.

She was a stay-at-home mom when her children were young. She worked from home and helped her husband run a successful business, Brown’s Shuttle Mill in Algood. She would prepare dinner as it was called back then, five days a week for all the work hands from the Mill. She was the best southern cook and was known for her fried potatoes.

As her children got older, she ventured outside the home for employment. She enjoyed being a cashier at Algood IGA for years until her husband, Clifton had a massive stroke, then she became a full time caregiver for 17 years.

Her last adventure in the workforce was working as a greeter at Whitson Funeral Home. She was there for several years sharing light and laughter with people during their darkest times. Her advice was to “die young as late as possible.”

In her spare time she loved to sing, and was in two different gospel groups that shared the love of Jesus throughout the Upper Cumberland. Before COVID, she was instrumental in starting Saturday night congregational singing at the Algood Cumberland Presbyterian Church. She loved her church and church family. To hear her tell it, “People would come from far and wide to hear and join in the singing.”

Her girls were happy for her when she found a wonderful man to spend some time with, in her later years, Dallas Frazier, who enjoyed gospel singing as much as she did. Nell and Dallas never got married because she “didn’t want to have any more children” was her comment.

The last two years of her life, she struggled with the effects of cancer, but dementia was the evil force that got the best of her. Her daughters were determined to give her the best life possible during this time, and they did. Even during the darkest days, there was laughter, love and sometimes tears, but they made it due to the foundation of faith in their Lord Jesus Christ that Vernell had shown them how build and nourish throughout her life.

She always said, “You can be a Christian and have fun or God would not have given us a sense of humor.” We agree, Mama. We know you were ready to meet your maker and with that, we can have some peace today and many memories of joy and laughter. We look forward to seeing you running through the shallow waters reaching for our hands.

Donations can be made to Algood Cumberland Presbyterian Women and the Cookeville Human Fund.

Whitson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Coroner Reports Death of Cookeville Soldier as Suicide:

The body of Charles Bumbalough, 22-year-old Cookeville soldier, found Tuesday in the Potomac at Washington, D. C., is expected to arrive at the Carver Funeral Home sometime tomorrow, members of the family said today.

Bumbalough was the son of Mrs. Effie Bumbalough, who lives at Broad and Dixie. He was an overseas battle veteran but re-enlisted after being out of the army for nearly a year. He had been in a hospital at Belvoir, VA, and had been reassigned to duty at Fort Monmouth, Red Bank, NJ.

Members of the family at first suspected foul play in connection with the private first class' death since it was thought that he had about $300 on his person, but reports from Washington authorities describe it as suicide.

Bumbalough's brother, James, told the Herald that his last words before leaving home October 30 to report to duty was “I'll see you Christmas.” He said his brother was in “great spirits, apparently not worried about anything.”

District of Columbia Coroner A. Magruder MacDonald yesterday issued a certificate of suicide. Police said the soldier had been dead about a week.

An army lieutenant said in a United Press story that Bumbalough had been in the hospital for treatment of a mental disease and that he attempted to jump from a bridge over the Potomac about six months ago but was thwarted by a Washington park police.

Charles had to go by the Virginia base to pick up his clothing and receive his pay-check, his brother said.

Authorities in Washington said all identification papers were on the body, and that he also had a bus ticket for Red Bank, NJ, but nothing was said about any money.

After attending Central High school for three years, Bumbalough enlisted in the army. He served with an engineer outfit in the European theater of operations and wore two battle stars on his combat ribbon.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed earlier today, but the body will be taken to the Carver Funeral Home.

Harris Brothers Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will conduct the military funeral, and burial will be in West Cemetery, on the Smithville Road.

In addition to his mother and brother, both of Cookeville, survivors include another brother, Eugene Bumbalough, Detroit, MI, and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Bohannon, Madison.

AGED WOMAN DIES IN BLAZE AT HOME NEAR COOKEVILLE:

Mrs. Josie Breeding Bussell, 74-year-old widow, who lived alone at her home one mile east of Cookeville on the Algood Highway, died of suffocation after her clothes had become ignited early Tuesday morning.

She was found dead by an 11 year-old girl, Ruth Manier, about 6 o'clock. The girl, who lives next door, had gone to feed the aged neighbor's chickens and looking through the widow saw the woman lying on the floor. Her mother, Mrs. John Manier, summoned help and the back door of the house was broken down to gain entrance.

Sheriff Sam Denton Poteet, who investigated, said the covers off a cot near a grate were burned, a hole was burned through the floor and the flames had singed the wall paper. Apparently the cot became ignited as the aged woman kindled a fire in the grate and she had collapsed while trying to extinguish the flames with a coat. Her hair and one side of her face was burned.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Frances Johnson, of near Cookeville and several nieces and nephews. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral services and burial were held yesterday afternoon at the West Cemetery.

Note: Michael Shepherd Story:

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. (WKRN) — The Pegram man accused of causing a crash that killed a mother and her two young sons in Cookeville has faced more than 20 criminal charges in Cheatham, Davidson, and Williamson counties since becoming an adult.

News 2 obtained an arrest record for Michael Shepherd from the Cheatham County Sheriff's Office, which shows the 25-year-old has been arrested at least 17 times since June 2014 on charges including arson, aggravated kidnapping and reckless endangerment. He has also faced four counts of driving on a revoked license, the most recent of which was in 2018.

Shepherd also has five charges in Davidson County including drugs and domestic assault.

His most recent charge is in Williamson for evading arrest in October.

"It's my understanding that he plead guilty in Williamson County last October in 2020 for felony evading arrest and he is on probation for that arrest. So I anticipate that there'll be a violation of probation filed in Williamson county," Putnam County District Attorney General Bryan Dunaway told media after the hearing Wednesday.

Shepherd was arrested Tuesday on three counts of vehicular homicide and evading arrest after police said he crashed a pick-up truck into a car driven by Amanda Chatman around 7:40 a.m. Tuesday at Interstate Drive and South Willow Avenue.

Chatman, 24, and her two children, ages three and four, were killed in the collision, according to investigators.

Wednesday morning, Shepherd appeared in Putnam County court for a bond hearing, however, the judge found Shepherd could not afford a lawyer and would need to be appointed a public defender. The judge rescheduled the bond hearing for February 17th.

Cookeville police said Shepherd was fleeing from Tennessee Highway Patrol troopers at the time of the fatal crash.

Troopers with the Tennessee Highway Patrol was pursuing a 2020 Toyota Tacoma truck near the Monterey area on Interstate 40. The driver of the fleeing truck, later identified as 25-year-old Michael Don Shepherd, led troopers to an exit in Cookeville.

Shepherd's speeding truck hit a vehicle carrying mother and two children, according to investigators, and all three in the vehicle died.

The family of the victims confirmed to News 2 that 24-year old Amanda Chatman and her 3 and 4-year-old sons were killed in the crash.

Shepherd is being held in the Putnam County jail.

The Lord called Rob Home on April 1, 2022 he was 48.

Anyone who knew Rob would tell you he was a good man, a great friend and a loving and caring dad. He would help whomever was in need, and put himself out to do so.. Rob never knew a stranger. He was a friend to all and he genuinely loved everyone he knew. He could always be counted on. Rob would drop what he was doing and run to who ever needed him. He never expect anything in return. His loyalty knew no bounds, his heart knew no hate.

It saddens me that I missed our time in the recent months as his health was failing, it's not the way I wanted to remember him, and that that he's gone it breaks my heart even more.

Rob, my friend, my family, you've always been on my mind and you'll forever be in my heart. Your hard work, good deeds and love towards everyone, has surely rewarded you. Heaven has definitely regained a beautiful soul. Fly high.. Watch over us all.. We Love You and Miss You Rob... Until We Meet Again Rest Easy Sweetie..

For Stephen and Shawn your dad loved you boys with everything in him.. No matter your differences you guys need one another. You both need to understand, be there for each other and help get through this together. You both need to do it for your dad and for each other... Your dads only wish was for his boys was to be close, to take care of and love each other.

DEERING, NOAH: There will be many sad ones when they learn of the death of Noah Deering, who died at his home April 9, 1911, and was buried at West Cemetery April 10, in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends. He leaves an afflicted wife and five children and many friends to mourn his absence. Noah was 64 years, 3 months and 28 days of age. He was my brother in the Federal army, and also in Albert G. Davis Post No. 76, G. A. R. We both officiated in many decorations of the veterans' graves, but he will be absent at the next. The writer (Rev. M. Judd) officiated at the funeral services with a sad heart. We have decided to have a decoration of soldiers' graves at the West Cemetery on May 30, at 10 a. m. We cordially invite Confederate veterans to join with us and have a union decoration. Brethren, let us hear from some of you. [Date 4/27/1911, Vol. IX, No. 17, Page 7]

His family will receive friends Tuesday evening, January 16th from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. and again Wednesday, January 17th from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at the Cookeville chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home.

Mr. Dickey departed from this life Wednesday, January 10, 2024 at Harmony Memory Care in Brentwood, TN.

He was born July 3, 1943 in Ramer, McNairy Co, TN to Marshall Terry and Sylvia Daisy (Lumpkin) Dickey. He resided in Memphis for most of his childhood and then graduated from Messick High School in Memphis. He was a proud member of the US Army National Guard.

He met his wife, Karen Furrow, in Memphis, TN. Doug and Karen married on July 16, 1966 and celebrated 54 years of marriage until her death in 2021.

Doug was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He relished time spent with his family. Annual vacations, often to the beach or the mountains, were a staple in his children's lives. Throughout the years, his family created countless memories on those vacations. He loved sports and in his younger years, he participated in softball.

Doug had an impeccable work ethic. He truly enjoyed people and was known as a kind, caring, and compassionate person among his co-workers. It was evident that the feelings were mutual. Over the years, there were many phone calls, texts, and a number of visits by his friends and former co-workers to let him know how much he meant to them. His life wisdom was "As you climb the corporate ladder, always treat others with respect, because as fast as you can climb the ladder, you can fall down." He lived his life in accordance with Matthew 7:12, "Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

Even when he entered Memory Care of Brentwood, work and service brought him joy. During his two year stay there, he enjoyed being "supervisor" of the unit and would often instruct the employees at the nurses station of necessary changes that needed to be made to improve performance. He loved his care team and they loved him. He kept them thoroughly entertained while joking and flirting with them.

His passion for cars was truly remarkable. Even when his memory began to fail him, he could still recall, in order, over 100 cars and trucks that he had owned and the year that he purchased them. He was especially fond of his 1963 Corvette Stingray Convertible that he owned until the very end. He often joked that he would sell his wife before getting rid of his car. Together, he and his wife created numerous happy memories while cruising in that Corvette.

Throughout his career, Doug worked mostly in the food industry. In Memphis, he was employed by John Morrell Food Group. He and his family then moved to Bristol, VA in 1981 where he worked for Valleydale Foods (Smithfield) as plant manager. In 1986, he relocated to Cookeville, where he was plant manager for Fast Food Merchandisers (Hardee's Corp) in Monterey TN. His career also took him to Laurinburg, NC and Berlin, OH. When Doug fully retired, he and his family moved back to Cookeville in 1999.

Doug was of the Baptist faith. He attended Church on the Hill, where he served often as a door greeter, and he was also a member of First Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Karen Dickey; parents, Marshall and Sylvia Dickey; and his sister, Janet Thomas. He is survived by his sister, Pamela Clark; his sons Alan Dickey Douglas (Cathy) of Brentwood, TN; and Michael Drew Dickey (Lisa) of Cookeville; grandchildren Reese Douglas, Jenny Douglas, Ethan Douglas and Brent Jared (Misty); and great grandchildren Jonas Jared, Gabe Jared, and Noah Jared. Along with numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Blake Grogan, Billy Lee, Frank Tittle, Jeff Marsh, Reese Douglas, and Ethan Douglas will serve as pallbearers.

Grayson Colby Grimes, 30 of Cookeville, Tennessee passed from this life on Saturday, May 12, 2018, at his home.

Grayson was born Saturday, November 14, 1987 in Cookeville, Tennessee and he was the son of Duane Grimes and Sally(Dixon) Grimes.

Grayson will be remembered for his contagious smile, his sense of humor, his kind heart and most certainly his sense of adventure. His competitive nature was apparent through all aspects of his life...including a good debate, also known as an argument.

An avid outdoor lover, he engaged in sports, hunting, being on the water, and traveled as often as he could to new destinations. Music was a constant for Grayson, it included every genre, both live and recorded. His nephews Ryder and Bodhi were a true source of joy and love for him; it also enabled him to pretend to be a kid again. He was so proud of them.

Grayson is a child of God. He was attending the River Church in Cookeville. He KNEW that HE KNEW.

Survived by his father Duane Grimes, his mother Sally Dixon Grimes and “step-dad” Tony Herren, Sister Allie Grimes and nephews Ryder and Bodhi. Miss Melonee Grimes, daughter of Henry Grimes, entered in rest Sept. 10 1911, at her father's home in west Cookeville, after an illness of several months.

By her sweet disposition and gentle manners she won a place in many hearts that deeply deplore her death. She was held in love and esteem by many friends, for Melonee was an exceptionally good girl.

She will be sadly missed by her father, who tenderly loved her; and by her sisters and brothers whose sweet companionship they had.

It seems double sad for one to leave us who had many friends and just beginning life. But she has gone to that beautiful home above, there to dwell with all her loved ones who had gone on before and will be no stranger in the house of God.

She was laid to rest in the West cemetery in the presence of a large crowd.

Alan Fryrear reading scripture, at Schur Funeral Home in Peewee Valley, Ky. The burial is Tuesday, Dec. 20, at 2 p.m. at West Cemetery in Cookeville, Tenn., with Rev. Russell Flatt presiding.

Floyd Levi Jernigan Sr. passed away Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2016, at Friendship Manor Nursing Home, Peewee Valley, Ky.

He was born Oct. 31, 1932, in Livingston, Tenn., the son of the late Maude Lee (Eldridge) and Luther Pleas Jernigan Sr.

He graduated from Livingston Academy in 1950. He attended Tennessee Polytechnic Institute (Tennessee Tech University), where he met Blanche Willodene Whitaker. They were married March 18, 1954.

He graduated from Tennessee Tech in August 1954, with a bachelor of science in industrial management. He served in the U.S. Army, completing his active duty in the Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga., as a 1st Lt. He then served in the Army Reserve.

In 1957, he became an account executive at Burroughs Corporation (now Unisys). In 1968, he joined Southern Federal Savings and Loan as managing director and vice president, a position he held until he retired in 1980.

From 1981 through 2011, Floyd worked as a consultant to financial institutions, serving as an expert witness in more than 25 different legal actions for various financial firms and government entities. He worked with 39 different clients across the country as a specialist in mergers and acquisitions, fraud investigation and claims recovery, lender liability, and data processing.

He also worked as a computer consultant, doing installs for multiple cities and businesses and operated Jernigan and Son, a framing and art business.

Locally, he will be well remembered as a hot air balloon pilot. A broken nose during a high school football game left him unable to pass a physical to be a pilot, so he instead acquired a hot air balloon commercial pilot's license, becoming the first balloonist in Jefferson County, the seventh in the state (at the time), and one of just 300 nationally. Floyd flew his balloon, dubbed "The American Spirit," in major events across the country, including the Kentucky Derby Balloon Race (1974-1980), the Kentucky Sport Aviation Weekend, the Great Forest Park Balloon Race in St. Louis, the U.S. Air Force Museum Race, the Middle Tennessee Balloon Bash, and the national championships in Indianola, Iowa in 1976. He won the Kentucky Balloon Championship in 1978. He also created, organized and flew in the First Annual Pewee Valley Rally in 1978, Kentucky's first point-to-point balloon race, an event that continued for the next decade. He passed along his love of balloon flight by tutoring other area balloonists.

Other passions included scouting (he acquired his Eagle rank in 1948 and later served as an adult leader and advisor, receiving the Old Kentucky Home Council BSA President's Award for outstanding service in 1973), genealogy and history.

He received the Minuteman Award, the most prestigious award of The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, at the 117th Annual Congress, Sons of the American Revolution, in Williamsburg, Virg., July 9, 2007. Floyd became a life member of the Jamestowne Society in 2008, by establishing the family lineage as a burgess and landowner in Jamestown, Va.

He was a member of other boards, and in many, held leadership positions and often earned distinguished service awards, including the Kosair Crippled Children's Hospital, Camp Kavanaugh, the Louisville and Jefferson County Airport Advisory Committee, the Kentucky Balloon Society, National and Kentucky Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Kentucky Bureau of Corrections, the Kosair Shrine Temple, the Louisville Chapter of the American Business Club; the Breakfast Optimist Club of Louisville; and the Kentucky-Indiana Personal Computer Users Group; the South Oldham Lions Club, the Louisville Scottish Rite Temple, the American Legion, and the Kentucky Chapter 134 of the National Sojourners.

He was a lifelong church member, first at St. Mark, then was instrumental in establishing Watkins United Methodist Church, before he and Blanche transferred membership to Crestwood United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Blanche, of Pewee Valley; a sister, Christine Hatch, of Farmington, Conn.; a son, Floyd Levi Jernigan Jr. and wife Barbara of Rolla, Mo., grandchildren Holly, Kyle, Floyd III, and Amy Jernigan of Rolla, Mo.; step-grandchildren Marc Hudson and wife Stacey of Gallatin, Tenn., Jay Soldi and wife Tish of Peru, Ind., David Soldi of Peru, Ind., and Ann James and husband Clint, of Meridian, Idaho.

Floyd was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Luther Pleas (L.P.) Jernigan Jr., Henry Jernigan, and Donald Jernigan, sisters Ruth Clarke, Nola Mae Needham, Velma Burroughs, Lucille Jernigan, and Anna Edith Andrews.

Pallbearers will be Floyd Levi Jernigan Jr., Floyd Levi Jernigan III, Kyle Evan Jernigan, Amy Elizabeth Jernigan, Charles Atkins, Bill Needham and John Raleigh Needham.

Source: West Cemetery by Winnie Peterson, pg. 129: Uncle Everette and Aunt Zella were two of the hardest workers I have known. They had three sons and Aunt Zella always told me I was the daughter she never had. Uncle Everett has been known to work many times until sunset and then do his feeding, milking and caring for the livestock by latern light. He spent his entire life working for the Tennessee Central Railroad and retired from there to become a full time farmer for the rest of his life.

Aunt Zella was a full time mother and housewife as well as part time farmer with her husband. Many times she could be seen chopping wood to cook her meals, milking cows, hoeing in the garden, caring for livestock and chickens ect. You name it, she did it, if she could. She cared for my mother many times when mama would be sick with an asthma attack. She was our other mother.

Most likely you can find Uncle Everett's picture hanging in the Tennessee Railroad Depot along with some other men in his section gang, sitting on a little railroad car which the crew used to maintain eight miles of railroad. They kept the road beds, ties, rails, culverts, and trestles memded. The train crew faced many problems. Land slides were common. Heavy locomotives and overloaded boxcars, dented and broken rails, and plowed up crossties would delay services for many hours even days while the crew repaired the tracks. Railroad crewman was a hard job and farming is just as tough. He raised watermelons, corn, hay and cattle, as well as, a garden to feed his family. None of his boys were interested in farming.

After Aunt Zella's death in 1958, he was single several years but eventually married a life long friend of Aunt Zella's, Kate Gentry. They were married several years before his death. There were no children born to this union.

He was a good base singer of old tyme Gosepl songsw and traveled around the community singing wherever a Gospel Singing was held. He was always present when a Singing School was held. He would always belt out a solo part in a song where base was indicated. He was a Sunday School Superintenent for a number of years. He was the neighborhood barber, doing it without pay, as a service to his neighbors. He would haul all of us to Cane Creek to hear Bro. Jim Roberson preach in a two week revival which was held every year. He suffered with hardening of arteries several years before his death in 1975. His beautiful base voice could sometimes be heard while he was asleep.

John Mathis Lee was madly in love with his first wife Sarah Jane (Hyder) Lee and he had a hard time recovering from her death. My sister, Winona Harris remembered hearing folks talk about his love for Sarah Jane. She remembered going to their house and watching Lola comb her hair and put on makeup and thinking she would be happy when she gets old as Lola. Zachariah took the two girls, Lola and Bertha, to live with them and the boy went to live with Sarah Jane’s sister, mrs. Nelson Hyder, after Sarah’s death. John eventually married again for the 2nd time to Rutha Lee Maxwell. It was not known until the old West Cemetery records were discovered, what happened to Rutha. John Mathis Lee died 22 April 1930 and thirteen years later, 1943, Rutha Ann (Maxwell) Lee died. Lola Lee married John D. Smith and they had a large family. Bertha Lee married Bevy Jones from the Rocky Point community and Tibert Lee married Lydia Vera West, daughter of Dillard and Carrie West. Source: West Cemetery book by Winnie Peterson, pg. 117.

Both are buried at West Graveyard along with their son, Tommy and other children.

John West Farm joined their farm on the North side in the community. Adam "Add" McBride married Ada L. Lollar and were later divorced and he went to Oregon where he married a Canadian girl. They had two girls. He and Ada had one child that died as an infant and is buried by mother in Howard Cemetery. Dora and General Crockett "Crock" Price lived in Ada, OK, had nine children in 1910 census. David C. lived in CA many years, returned to Putnam County and at 38 he married Carrie Pennington. She was 19. They had a large family, 10 children. David ended up with the McBride farm after the death of his parents. Both are buried in West Graveyard. Mary Ellen had five children and died when the youngest child was 11 days old. After Mary's death, Amon left his children with Alex Grider to raise and went to OK to live.

Alexander Myatt was born in Morgan County, TN, which later became a part of Cumberland County. He and his brother, Alfred Myatt, bought adjoining farms in Overton County. The part where their farms were located, later became a part of Putnam County, TN when it was formed. The area where they lived was known as Standing Stone Community. He was the third child of Nimrod Myatt. He married Elizabeth Cardwell, daughter of George C. Cardwell and they had nine children. The Civil War started in 1861 but Alexander's sons were too young to fight. However, Alfred had two sons that fought for the Union Army in Co. "C" of the Tennessee 1st Mounted Infantry Regiment. Most of Overton and Putnam Counties remained with the Union. At the same time the Myatts in Cumberland County to the East and Dickson County to the west were with the Confederacy. There were 16 Myatts from Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois in the Union Army. Cousins were fighting each other.

We do not know why but perhaps it was due to milk fever that hit the community and killed so many, that caused the Myatts to move away from Standing Stone and come to live in the West Cemetery Community. At that time the Welch family moved up into Kentucky to escape the milk fever. Two of Alexander and Elizabeth's children moved to Kentucky while the rest lived around the parents. Their youngest child, Melissa, married Nathan Lee and they ended up caring for Alexander and Elizabeth in their old age and were given the family farm in West Cemetery Community. Nathan lived on that farm until he suffered a stroke that caused his death in 1948.

Body of Aged Cookeville Man Found in Sweetwater, Tex.

The body of Jesse H. Pendergrass, 68, of Cookeville, missing since November 17, found in a field five miles from Sweetwater, Texas, Sunday, after an intensive hunt, is expected to be returned here this after for burial tomorrow.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed but it is thought that if the body arrives this afternoon or tonight, services will be held at the West graveyard, near Cookeville, tomorrow afternoon with burial there.

Benton and Virgil Carr, nephews of the dead man, left Sunday afternoon for Sweetwater, to bring the body here after being notified by Roy Pendergrass, another nephew who lives there. He had notified them Saturday that the aged man's suitcase had been found and that a search would be made.

Pendergrass left Cookeville November 17, to visit two brothers at Meadow, Texas, near Lubbock. Ten days later relatives here learned that he had not arrived and a search was made. Later a $500 reward was offered.

Relatives here said the aged man had been deeply grieved since the death of his wife last June and his mind was believed affected. He was also subject to heart attacks.

According to word from his nephew in Texas, the aged man had been seen twice in Sweetwater, some time ago and had asked the way to Cookeville, and was directed to Cookeville Texas. He apparently did not know his nephew lived in Sweetwater.

Pendergrass had been dead several weeks, according to reports from Texas in face of an inquest verdict that the man was murdered by a person or persons unknown. Sheriff Tom Able, of Lubbock and Tom Wade, of Sweetwater said in a joint statement Tuesday that they believe the aged man wandered into a pasture, became lost and died of exposure. District Attorney George Outlaw said the Nolan County grand jury would review the case but no report was expected soon. Chief of police N. B. Hall of Sweetwater said Tuesday, "I still believe Pendergrass met without play."

Surviving are his sisters, Mrs. Maranda Howard, Altus, Okla, Mrs. Levi Maynard, Algood, and Mrs. George Judd, Mrs. Zeb Carr, Mrs. Vina Carr and Mrs. Pete Rippetoe all of Cookeville, and three brothers, Virdie and Travis Pendergrass, Meadow, Tex. and Homer Pendergrass, Altus, Okla.

Putnam county lost one of her oldest and most highly respected citizens in the death last Friday of Mr. John Pendergrass, who after a brief illness at his home a few miles west of Cookeville, passed to the great beyond. Mr. Pendergrass was 88 years of age, and had lived a useful life among the people of this section. He had reared a large family of sons and daughters, among them being our townsmen, F. R. and Sam Pendergrass.

Mr. Pendergrass, up to a short time ago, had always been an exceptionally active man for his years. He was a devout Christian, being a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and was one of the most active church workers in the country. He was greatly beloved by those with whom he came in contact in his daily life, and while he was advanced in years, will be greatly missed in his community. His remains were interred at the west cemetery Saturday afternoon and the service was largely attended by his many friends and neighbors, most of whom had known and loved him all their lives.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: 2 June 1921

Note: John was married first to Annie Donldson and had a son & daughter: Lewis Pendergrass and Narsissa Almira “Sis” Pendergrass who married John Burr Barnes. John T. Pendergrass was a carpenter. He is reported to have sawed the first board and nailed the first nail for the Smoot Contractors as they built the Dixie College in Cookeville, TN. After Elisabeth Matilda (Ray) Pendergrass died John T. Pendergrass remarried to her niece, Sarah Elizabeth “Betts” (Stewart) Pendergrass. Betts was the daughter of her sister, Arminta Dorman Ray and Jesse Peyton Stewart.

Woman killed on 4-wheeler

Mary Jo Denton
Herald-Citizen Staff
Friday, Apr 17, 2009

PUTNAM COUNTY -- A woman who was riding her new 4-wheeler was fatally injured when the vehicle flipped in her driveway on Thursday afternoon, law officers said.

Anna Phillips, 38, of Bunker Hill Road, Cookeville, died at Cookeville Regional Hospital following the crash, says a report by Putnam Sheriff's Deputy Cpl. Chuck Ledbetter.

Ledbetter said he and Deputy Bo Sherrell were sent to the Bunker Hill Road residence after a report came in just before 6 p.m. about a 4-wheeler accident there.

"We were told that Emergency Medical Services was enroute, and on my arrival, the paramedics were there preparing to load the victim, Anna Phillips, into the ambulance," Ledbetter's report says.

"Mrs. Phillips was alert and told the paramedics she could not breathe."

The deputy talked to the victim's husband, Jackie Phillips, and learned that the couple had just bought their 4-wheelers.

"He said they were riding them in the ditchline and said Mrs. Phillips was turning into the front yard and instead of hitting the brakes, she hit the gas.

"He said she was about to hit a car in the driveway and she turned sharply."

The vehicle then flipped over and Mrs. Phillips and the 4-wheeler hit the car, the deputy's report says.

A helicopter ambulance was called in to take the victim to a hospital in another city, but apparently, due to the severity of the victim's injuries, reportedly chest injuries, the decision was made to rush her to the hospital here.

"We later learned that Mrs. Phillips had died," Ledbetter's report says.

Ray, William L.: Death has again visited Cookeville and has taken away one of our most respected and aged citizens -- William L. Ray. He was stricken the first of last week with pneumonia and gradually became weaker, suffering considerably, until death came Wednesday morning, about 9:30 o'clock, while he was surrounded by his family and a number of relatives and friends. Mr. Ray was nearly 79 years of age, having been born April 28, 1837, and died Jan. 5, 1916. He had been a devout Christian nearly all his life, having been an active church member since childhood. Until about two years ago when he affiliated with Church of the Nazarenes, he was a member of the Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow and Mason, and served in the Confederate army. Mr. Ray married Miss Selia M. West Feb. 23, 1860, and was a devoted husband and kind and loving father for over fifty years. Besides his wife, he leaves five children -- one daughter, Mrs. J. G. Chapin; and four sons, Hensley, Daniel, Marshall and Robinson, all of whom reside here except Hensley, whose home is at Murfreesboro. The Funeral was conducted by Bro. E. W. Chambers, of Riddleton, Thursday morning at the home, quite a large crowd being present despite the extreme inclemency of the weather. Burial was at the West graveyard in the afternoon. As the road of life traveled, he became the honorary son of the late Ray L. Bray and Modena Bray. He shared their home and family for over 40 years, and oh the joy and happiness he brought. George could be spotted in town wearing vibrant orange pants and turquoise shirt! As he would always say, "he was attracted to pretty colors!"

George was truly one of a kind and to know him was to love him.

He is survived by the only mother he ever really knew, Modena N. Bray; two honorary sisters, Elaine Schwartz (Dave) of Clinton Township, Michigan and Nancy Crawford (Douglas) of Baxter, Tennessee; a wonderful forever Lego buddy, Colton W. Stafford; and a host of other family members along with his Pacesetters family.

A Noted Mother Passed Away –

The sudden death of Mrs. M. E. Stone (more commonly known as “Aunt Minerva”) at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Sparks last Thursday afternoon, removed one of the most beloved and noted mothers in this section, from our midst.

She was born January 5, 1841, died May 19, 1927, age 86 years and 5 months. She lived to see the fifth generation. Many Upper Cumberland News readers will recall the picture in its pages last summer of her, her daughter, granddaughter, great grandson and great great grandson all together. Another unusual fact was that she was the mother of 3 Baptist preachers while the youngest son, G. W. was an ordained Deacon.

She was twice married, and is surviving by 7 children; Rev. W. B. Gentry of Cookeville; Mrs. John Bray, Cookeville, Rt. 2 by her first marriage, and four sons and one daughter by her second marriage as follows: Rev. Joseph Windfield Stone Bloomington Springs; Rev. Elihu Whitley Stone, Nashville; Dillard Stone, Checotah, OK; George Washington Stone, Sparta, Rt. 4, and Mrs. Henry (Olive) Sparks, Cookeville, Rt. 2. Also by 4 grandchildren, 72 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren. Although she had been ill, not long ago, she apparently recovered, and remained active and mentally alert to the end, walking about and greeting friends not 30 minutes before her death. Her son E. W. and wife of Nashville were with her at the time of her death.

She was a member of Cane Creek Baptist Church and loved it dearly. She will be greatly missed by the whole church who feel that truly a "mother in Israel" is gone. While the loss of her encouragement and wise counsel will be keenly felt by her children, neighbors and friends, yet she lives on in the lives of her minister sons, who are proclaiming the gospel of the Savior she taught them to love.

Card of Thanks:

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for every act of kindness shown us in our recent bereavement in the sudden death of our mother. May God's richest blessings rest on each of you who helped in anyway to make the burden lighter, is our prayer.

Mrs. Henry Sparks, and Brothers and Sisters.
