

JUDD- DILLARD WEDDING

Herald newspaper, Cookeville, TN
Thursday, 4 July 1935, pg. 5

Mrs. Gertie Denny Dillard announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary Katherine, to Arnold Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Judd.

The ceremony was quietly solemnized Friday morning June 28 at the bride's home on Oak St. with the Rev. Harold Stephens officiating in the presence of members of the two families and their relatives.

The young couple stood in taking the marriage vows before an improvised altar of palms and ferns. At either end were tall baskets of Quenn Anne's lace and was lighted with tall white tapers in candelabras.

The bride wore a becoming model of white crepe and her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of rose buds.

Mrs. Paul Robinson, sister of the groom, was the bride's matron of honor and Mr. Robinson was Mr. Judd's best man. Mrs. John Holladay, pianist, played the wedding march.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Judd left for an Eastern motor trip and are now at home with the bride's mother.

Mrs. Judd was a member of the Central High School Senior Class.

Mr. Judd is associated with his father in the building business.
