Award to Al Williams: Herald Citizen Newspaper, Cookeville, TN
10 April 2005

For Service to the Honor Guard: Local Veterans Honor Guard Commander Roy Tudor, left, pins a '200 Funerals' pin on guard member Robert Walker. At right is Bilbrey Funeral Home director Frank Bilbrey Bohannon of Crossville. Walker, a member of American Legion Post 238, joined the guard unit in 2003. He is a Vietnam Veteran, a life member of the American Legion and VFW Post 5025 in Crossville, and services as judge advocate and community service officer for the VFW post.

Pinning Pierce: Veterans Honor Guard Commander Curt Tays, second from left, pins a "600 Funerals" pin on Arlin (Boots) Pierce. The award recipient joined the unit when it was formed in 1996. He is a Korean Conflict Army Veteran and a life member of the VFW Post 6277 in Monterey. On hand to witness the event are Ralph Billingsley, left, and Frank Medley, right, both of Whitson Funeral Home in Cookeville. The 24-member unit is composed of veterans who volunteer their services to provide military honors at funerals of deceased veterans. The members hail from Monterey, Cookeville, Crawford, Crossville, Sparta and Monroe.
