Respected Old Couple Dies Near Baxter:

J. J. Stultz, 82, and wife, Mollie Stults, 73, whose funerals were held at Arnold's Chapel and burial at the Stewart cemetery last Saturday at the same time was an unusual occurrence. Funeral was conducted by Rev. W. B. Gentry and Rev. J. A. Harris. They were devoted members of the Methodist Church at Arnold's Chapel.

This aged couple lived east of Baxter and were highly respected citizens of their community. Their death was a great shock to their relatives and friends as they were sick for only a few days.

Mr. Stultz is survived by one child, by a former marriage, Mrs. Susie Patton of Worley, KY, several grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Mrs. Stultz is survived by two brothers, R. H. and D. W. Nabors, three sisters, Mrs. Haywood Mitchell, Mrs. Alice Allison and Mrs. Eliza Whitehead.
