Funeral Services For Walter N. Scott Held At Liberty:

Funeral services for Walter Nelson Scott, 63, a native of Cookeville, who died in a Nashville hospital August 10 were held Thursday at Liberty, Jackson County.

Joe K. Alley, minister of the Gainesboro Church of Christ officiated at the services, and burial was in Carver Cemetery.

Mr. Scott spent his young manhood in Cookeville and Putnam and construction work under his father, the late Joe Scott, and had been successful as a contractor and supervisor of buildings in Cookeville, Nashville, Detroit, MI, and Gainesboro.

During the late war he supervised two government housing projects in Nashville, and a factory for building Thunderbolt planes in Evansville, IN. He supervised the construction of the Jackson County Central High School building and at the time of his death was supervising the construction of the Veterans Memorial Building in Gainesboro.

Mr. Scott married the former Miss Myrtle Williams of Jackson County 35 years ago, and they had lived on their farm near Liberty for 30 years. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

In addition to his widow, Mr. Scott is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Stephens Scott, Cookeville; two daughters, Mrs. Marie Brazwell and Miss Onaise Scott of Jackson County; one son Durell Scott of Cookeville, Mrs. Ira Hatfield, of Harriman, and Alex Lee, of Nashville; five brothers, Jimmy Joe, Oswald, and Frank Scott, all of Cookeville, and Hugh and T. J. Scott of Nashville, three grandchildren.
