

VETERANS OF PUTNAM COUNTY TENNESSEE
VETERANS HALL (part 6)

<http://www.ajlambert.com>

For more information about the project, or to inquire about displaying your veteran's picture, contact Glenn Jones at (931) 520-0042 or (931) 526-2161.

Mailing address: Putnam County Archives
ATTN: Glenn Jones
121 B South Dixie Ave.
Cookeville, TN 38501

U.S. MARINE STAFF SGT. RIDLEY PARKERSON JR. &
U. S. AIR CORPS JAMES LEONARD JUDD

Billye Spicer Grogan holds photos of two of her classmates U.S. Marine Staff Sgt. Ridley Parkerson Jr. and U.S. Air Corps member James Leonard Judd in the Putnam County Veterans Hall. Parkerson served in the Marines during World War II in Okinawa, Occupation of China, New Guinea and New Britain. He received the Purple Heart and the Defense Ribbon. He died in June of 1964 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Judd served during World War II in the Nashville Classification Center Medical Discharge. He died in July of 1990 and is buried in Clearwater, Fla. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea | Herald-Citizen.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 8 January 2013.

U. S. ARMY MAJOR COMMAND SERGEANT C. O. WYNNE

U. S. Army Major Command Sergeant C.O. Wynne, seated front right, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He is pictured with his four children, James Wynne, seated left, and in back, Phillip Wynne, Jan Presley and Colleen Childress. He served during WWII, Korea and Vietnam. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 3 January 2013.

ARMY ENGINEER WILLIAM ERNEST PHILLIPS

The late William Ernest Phillips, represented by his great-nephew Joe Brown, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served in the Army during WWI, serving as an engineer in France. He died in 1958 and is buried in New Hope Cemetery. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 15 January 2013.

ARMY PRIVATE JAMES ARTHUR GROGAN JR.

The late Army Private James Arthur Grogan Jr., represented by his widow Billye Spicer Grogan, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served in World War II in the Army Ground Replacement Depot #3 and earned an Expert Infantryman Badge as a marksman M-1 rifle. He passed away in January 2010 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Ty Kernea | Herald-Citizen *See Army Air Corps 1st Lt. Philip Bryant Spicer.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 29 January 2013.

NAVY VETERAN WAYNE L. SMITH

The Putnam County Archives/Veterans' Hall is selling engraved bricks to help fund a new building. Pictured with one of the bricks is the family of veteran Wayne L. Smith, seated, left, Jeanette Smith, his wife; and Norma Smith, mother. In back, from left, are Shannon Alford, daughter; Bronson and Presley Randolph, grandchildren; and Jason Smith, son. Wayne served in the Navy during the Vietnam War on the USS Bon Homme Richard and the USS Enterprise. He was awarded medals for Good Conduct, National Defense, Armed Forces Expedition, Meritorious Unit Commendation, Vietnam Service and Vietnam Campaign.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: Sunday, 20 January 2013, pg. A-3.

U.S. AIR FORCE SSGT JASON DOYLE MADEWELL U. S. ARMY CORPORAL WILLIE D. MCNEAL U. S. ARMY E-4 ERICE B. NELSON

From left, U. S. Air Force SSGT Jason Doyle Madewell, U. S. Army Corporal Willie D. McNeal and U. S. Army E-4 Eric B. Nelson are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Madewell, a grandson of Willie, served in the Air Force in the fire/rescue squad from 2003 to 2008 and Operation Iraqi Freedom from 2004-2005, 2006, 2009-2010 and is currently serving in the Tennessee National Guard Aviation. Willie, center, served as an anti-air-craft/gunner during World War II in Germany, France, Normandy, England and Switzerland in the Battle of the Bulge. Eric, right, also a grandson of Willie's served in the U. S. Army from 1982-1985 in the Tow and Dragon Missile Repair in Aschaffenburg, Germany. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call 520-0042. Ty Kernea | Herald-Citizen

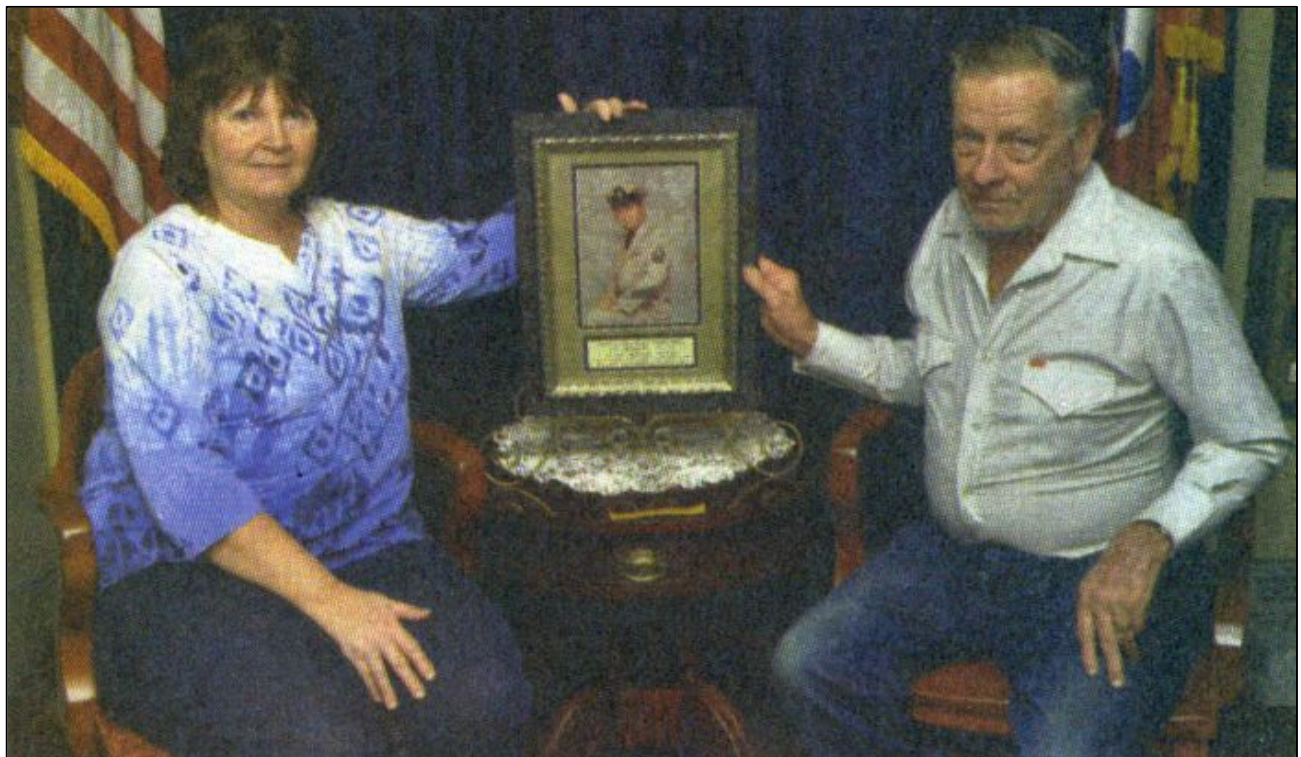

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 22 January 2013

ARMY AIR FORCE STAFF SGT. JESSE ALLEN RAY SR.

The late Army Air Force Staff Sgt. Jesse Allen Ray Sr., represented by three of his grandchildren, seated, Amy Ray and Alicia Ray Sheumaker and, standing, Adam Ray Pharris, is Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Ray served during WWII as an AAF technician-airplane and engine mechanic. He received a WWII Victory Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal, American Theatre Ribbon and two Bronze Service Stars. He died August 31, 2009, and is buried in Phillips Cemetery. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 5 February 2013.

US NAVY CHIEF PETTY OFFICER KYLE C. "DICKY" PITMAN

The late U. S. Navy Chief Officer Kyle C. "Dicky" Pitman, represented by niece Kathy Wilson and brother-in-law Jarvis Matheney, is Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served in the navy during the Korean War and was stationed in Japan, Guam and San Diego. He served aboard the USS Orion AS18 and the USS Marsh DE699. He died August 24, 2001, and is buried in San Diego. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 12 February 2013.

ARMY AIR CORPS 1ST LT PHILIP BRYANT SPICER

The late Army Air Corps 1st Lt Philip Bryant Spicer, represented by his widow Billy Marguerite (Lee) Spicer Grogan, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served during WWII from 1941-1945 in Air Corps Bases in Colorado, Texas and Florida. He served as a bomber pilot. He died in October of 1996 and is buried in New Home Baptist Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN. Photo by Ty Kernea.
*See Army Private James Arthur Grogan Jr.

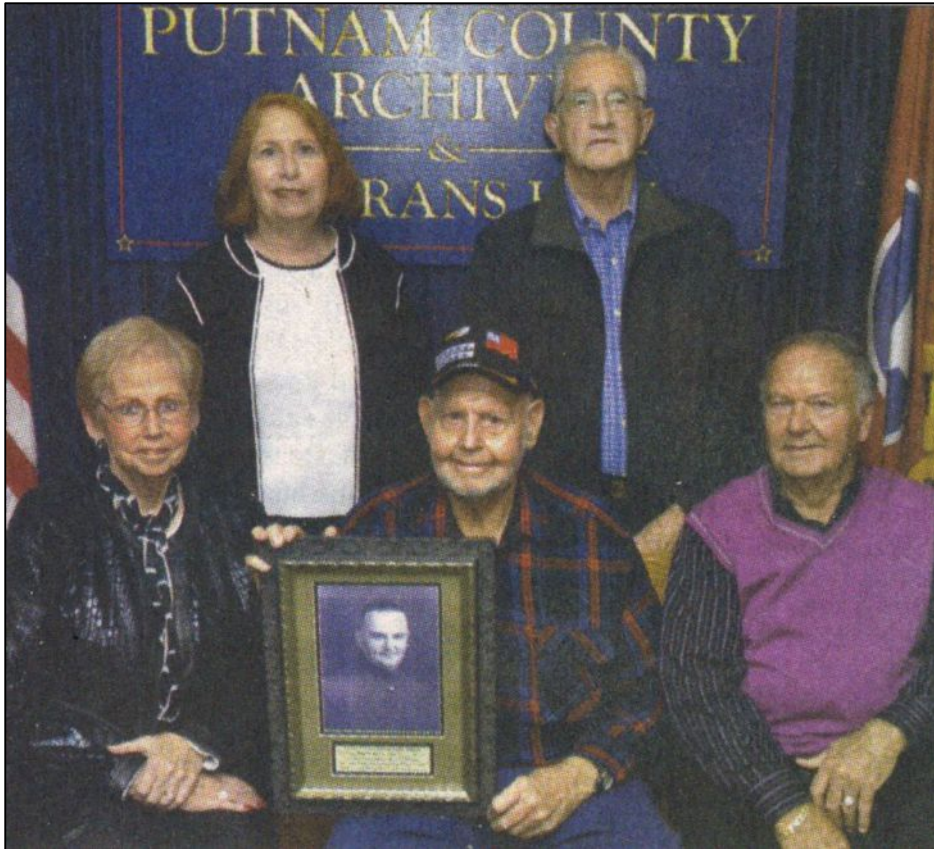

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 19 February 2003.

ARMY CORPORAL HUBERT L. BRASWELL, ARMY SGT. JAMES H. BRASWELL, ARMY SP 4 SHELAH PAUL BRASWELL.

The Braswell brothers, framed from left, the late Army Corporal Hubert L. Braswell and Army Sgt. James H. Braswell, along with Army Specialist 4 Shelah Paul Braswell, seated center, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. They are represented by, seated, sisters Loretta Inglis and Betty Harris, and standing, George Inglis, Loretta's husband; Sue Braswell, James' wife; Bettie Braswell, Shelah Paul's wife; and Jimmy Harris, Betty Harris' husband. Hubert served in World War II as a general clerk in the 202nd labor Supervision Center during the occupation of Germany. He died in December of 2009 and is buried in Cookeville City Cemetery. James served in Korea as a squad leader 57 Recoilless Rifle Company G, 180th Regiment, 45th Infantry Division. He died in January of 2005 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Shelah Paul served in Vietnam War at Camp Casey in Korea as a cook, Co. 13th Engineer Battalion, 7th Infantry Division. Photo by Ty Kernea.

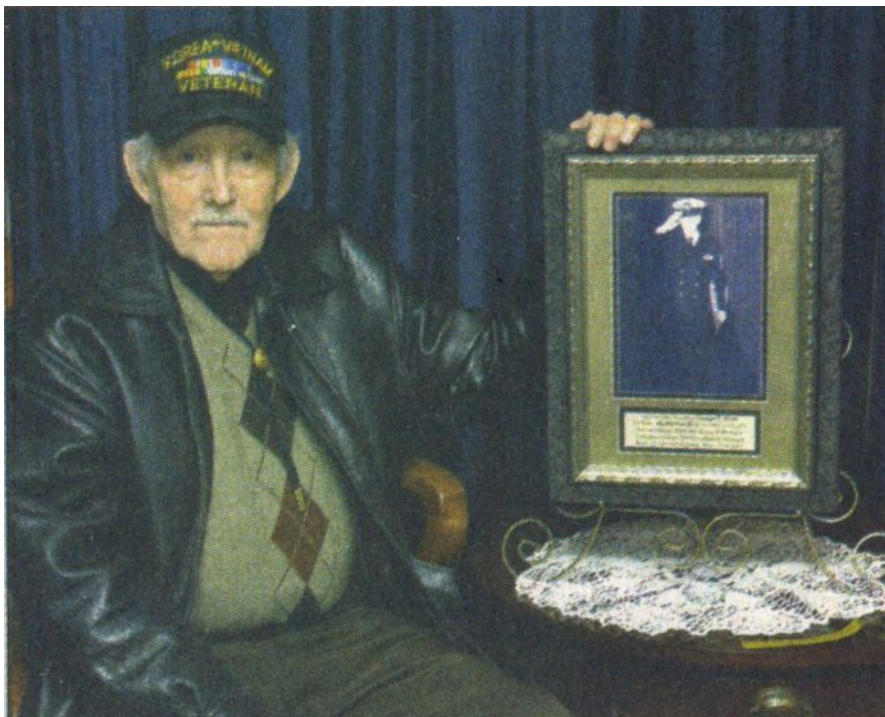

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 26 February 2013

U. S. ARMY PRIVATE ALFRED TAYLOR FOUTCH

The late U. S. Army Private 1st Class Alfred Taylor Foutch, represented by family members, seated, from left, Betty Taylor, great niece; Ira B. Cowan, nephew; and Fred Ragland, great nephew; and standing, Brenda Cowan Francis, great-niece; and Jack Taylor, Betty's husband, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Foutch served in the U. S. Army during World War I with Company M, 117th Infantry and was severely wounded in action at Ypres Sector. He died August 3, 1957, and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 12 March 2013

MASTER CHIEF
YEOMAN GEORGE E. REED

The late Master Chief Yeoman George E. Reed, represented by his brother, Bob, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Reed served in the Navy during World War II, serving from May 9, 1968 to May 26, 1970. He served aboard the USS Wyoming and USS Alcor during the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign. He died Dec. 8, 2005. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 19 March 2013

AIRMAN 3RD CLASS JAMES ELI ALLISON

The late Airman 3rd Class James Eli Allison, represented by wife Mariene Allison, left, and Jerry Allison, brother, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Allison served in the Air Force during the Cuban Missile Crisis from March 20, 1959, to Sept. 13, 1962. He was stationed in Germany as Military Police and security guard and also served in the Honor Guard for President Kennedy and the Queen of Belgium. He died Dec. 30, 2012, and is buried in the Allison Cemetery. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 26 March 2013

U. S. ARMY PRIVATE QUARTERMASTER CORPSMAN ALVA ALBERT ALLEN PRIVATE FIRST CLASS HOBERT H. ALLEN

The late U. S. Army Private Quartermaster Corpsman Alva Albert Allen and the late Private First Class Hobert H. Allen, represented by daughter and sister June Vickers, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Alva Albert Allen served during WWI with the Quartermaster Corps. He died Sept. 15, 1954, and is buried in Cookeville City Cemetery. Hobert H. Allen served in the infantry during WWII in the European theatre and engaged in Anzio Beachhead. He trained at Camp Wheeler in GA and Fort George G. Meade in MD. He was killed in action in Corano, Italy, Feb. 18, 1944, and is buried in Nashville National Cemetery, Nashville, TN. Photo by Megan Trotter.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 2 April 2013

U.S. NAVY CHIEF QUARTERMASTER EUGENE O'BRIEN SCHMID

U. S. Navy Chief Quartermaster Eugene O'Brien Schmid, seated second from left, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He is pictured with family members, seated from left, Angela Schmid, granddaughter; and Eugene O. Schmid Jr., son; and standing, from left, great-grandsons Alexander Vinson, Rowan Correll and Luke Vinson. Schmid served during World War II and the Cold War on 10 ships and three Navy stations. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 9 April 2013.

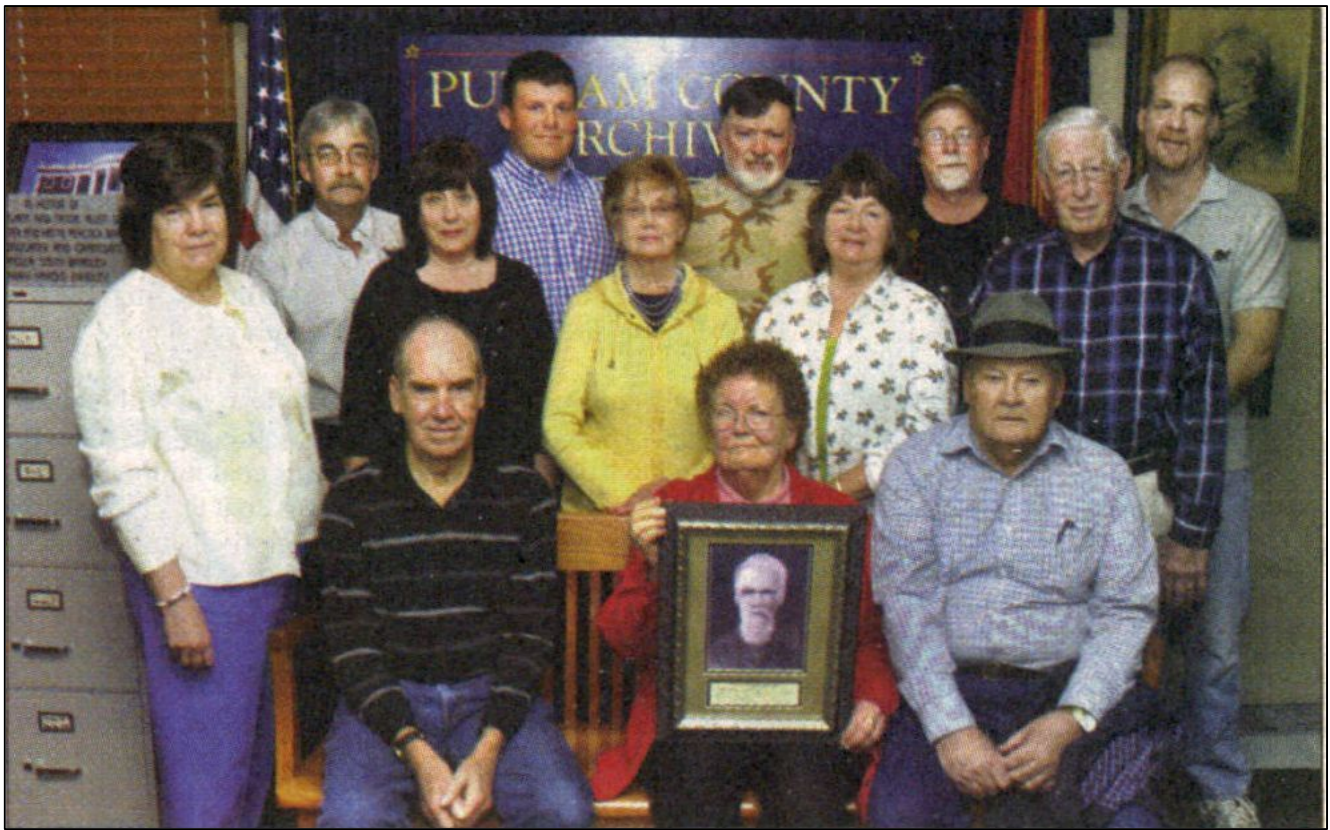

THE COWAN BROTHERS:

U. S. Army Corporal Everett C. Cowan, U. S. Army Tech Sgt. Thomas F. Cowan
U. S. Navy Boatswain' Mate Odell Cowan, U. S. Army Private Bill A. Cowan
U. S. Army Private Carson Cowan & U. S. Navy Seaman Ira B. Cowan

The Cowan brothers, in framed photos from left, the late U. S. Army Corporal Everett C. Cowan, U. S. Army Tech Sgt. Thomas F. Cowan, U. S. Navy Boatswain' Mate Odell Cowan, U. S. Army Private Bill A. Cowan, U. S. Army Private Carson Cowan and U. S. Navy Seaman Ira B. Cowan, seated right, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. They are represented by family members, seated, from left, Fred Ragland, nephew; Betty Taylor, niece; and Ira B. Cowan, brother; and standing, Brenda Cowan Francis, Odell's daughter; Karen Richey, Carson's daughter; and Jack Taylor, Betty's husband.

Everett served as a heavy machine gunner in France and Germany. He died in 2009 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Thomas served in World War II in Burma, New Guinea and India as a crane operator. He died in 1966 and is buried in Chestnut Mound. Odell served during World War II and was stationed in Great Lakes, IL. He served aboard the USS Pensacola and USS Columbus. He died in 2001 and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery in Nashville. Bill served during World War II in northern France, Ardennes, Rhineland and Central Europe, driving officers around in a Jeep. He also acted as a cook and was a part of the infantry. He died in 1977 and is buried in Michigan. Carson served in World War II in France and Germany in the combat infantry. He received the Purple Heart. He died in 2004 and is buried in Joe White Cemetery. Ira served in the Korean War and was stationed in the Great Lakes Naval Base. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 23 April 2013.

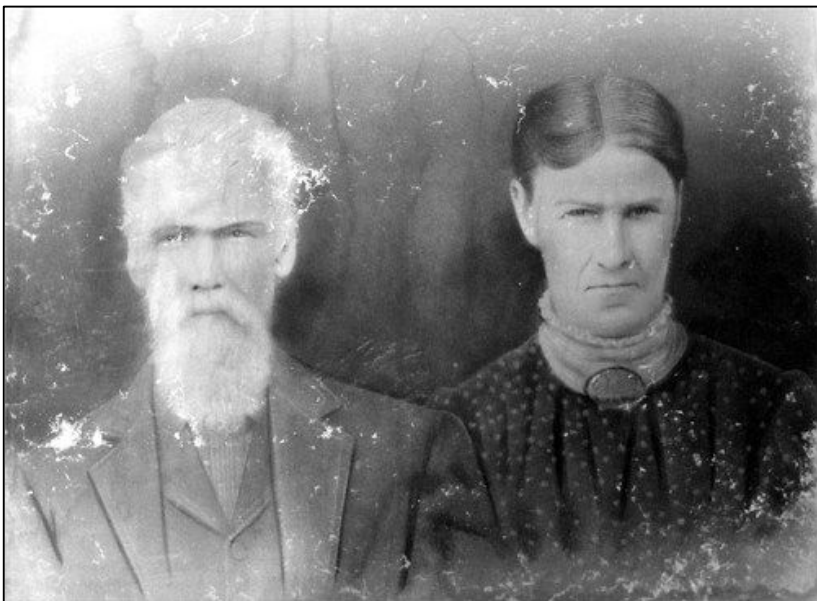

CONFEDERATE ARMY PRIVATE ALEXANDER KINNAIRD

The late Confederate Army Private Alexander Kinnaird is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He is represented by family members, in the back row, from left, Ronnie Kinnaird, great-grandson; Jeb Kinnaird, great-great-grandson; Howard Bean, great-grandson; Darrel Dabbs, great-great-grandson and Steve Kinnaird, great-great grandson; middle, Margaret Chaffin, great-granddaughter; Glenda Solomon, great-great-granddaughter; Elizabeth Jones, great-granddaughter; Geneva Bryant, great-granddaughter; and Dr. William Shipley, cousin; and in the front row, Harold Dawson Kinnaird great grandson; Adean Smith, great-granddaughter; and James R. Kinnarid, grandson. Kinnaird joined the Confederate Army in 1862, joining Col. George G. Dibrell's 8th Regiment Co. K TN Calvary, also known as 13th TN. He fought at Chickamauga and was captured Nov. 25, 1863, after the battle of Missionary Ridge while riding courier. He spent the remainder of the war as a prisoner at Rock Island, IL. He died July 5, 1905, and is buried in Bullington Cemetery, near where he was born. Photo by Ty Kernea.

For more information about the Veteran Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 30 April 2013

Alexander Kinnaird and his wife Virginia (Bullington) Kinnaird

Alexander Kinnaird

b. 1 January 1838, Putnam Co., TN

d. 5 July 1905, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN

Wife: Virginia Bullington (1836-1910)

Father: Montgomery Kinnaird

Mother: Sarah Rhea

Buried: Bullington Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN

Virginia (Bullington) Kinnaird

b. 22 February 1836, Putnam Co., TN

d. 1 February 1910, Putnam Co., TN

Husband: Alexander Kinnaird

Father: Josiah A. Bullington (1801-1870)

Mother: Sarah Jane Mahoney (1802-1870)

Buried: Bullington Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN

U.S. NAVY AVIATION RADIO MAN THIRD WALTER WARREN SHANKS

The late U. S. Navy Aviation Radio Man Third Walter Warren Shanks, represented by wife Wanda Shanks (also holding a photo of her late son Stanley Warren Shanks), and sons Wayne Shanks and Walter H. Shanks, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Walter served during World War II, flying in airplanes as a radio operator transmitting and receiving morse code, listening for the enemy. He died March of 1997. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 21 May 2013.

U. S. NAVY THIRD CLASS PETTY OFFICER LEONARD D. MADDUX

U. S. Navy Third Class Petty Officer Leonard D. Maddux, seated center, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He is pictured with sons Rick Maddux and Larry E. Maddux and, standing, daughters-in-law Gale Maddux and Pam Maddux. Leonard served in World War II and the Korean Conflict in the European and Pacific Theater of Operation as a radioman, stationed at Pelellu Island. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 11 June 2013.

U. S. ARMY SPEC. E-4 MARK ANTHONY TAYSE
&
U. S. ARMY SGT. 1ST CLASS CECIL TAYSE JR.

U. s. Army Spec. E-4 Mark Anthony Tayse, holding his own photo seated right, and his father, the late U. S. Army Sgt. 1st Class Cecil Tayse Jr, represented by, seated left, wife Betty Tayse and (in back) Jerry Lee Tayse, son, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Mark served as a nuclear biological chemical reconnaissance in Mannheim, Germany, in the 7th Cavalry Armored, 8th Infantry Division. Cecil served during the Vietnam War in the National Guard and re-enlisted into the Army, 1st Cavalry Division, serving as a medic on helicopters in Vietnam. He died May 8, 2006, and is buried in Burriss Cemetery. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 4 June 2013.

U.S. AIR FORCE PFC WALTER T. RICHARDS JR.

U. s. Air Fore PFC Walter T. Richards Jr., seated left, is the are the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He is pictured with his wife Carolyn Anne Richards (holding a photo of son Walter T. Richards III), and standing, daughter Jean Gibson, son Michael Richards and daughter Cheryl A. Bourque. Walter served during the Korean War from 1951 to 1952. He graduated engineering school at Ft. Belvoir, VA, and was a power plant operator at the D. E. W. Lines Radar Station, Alaska. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea.

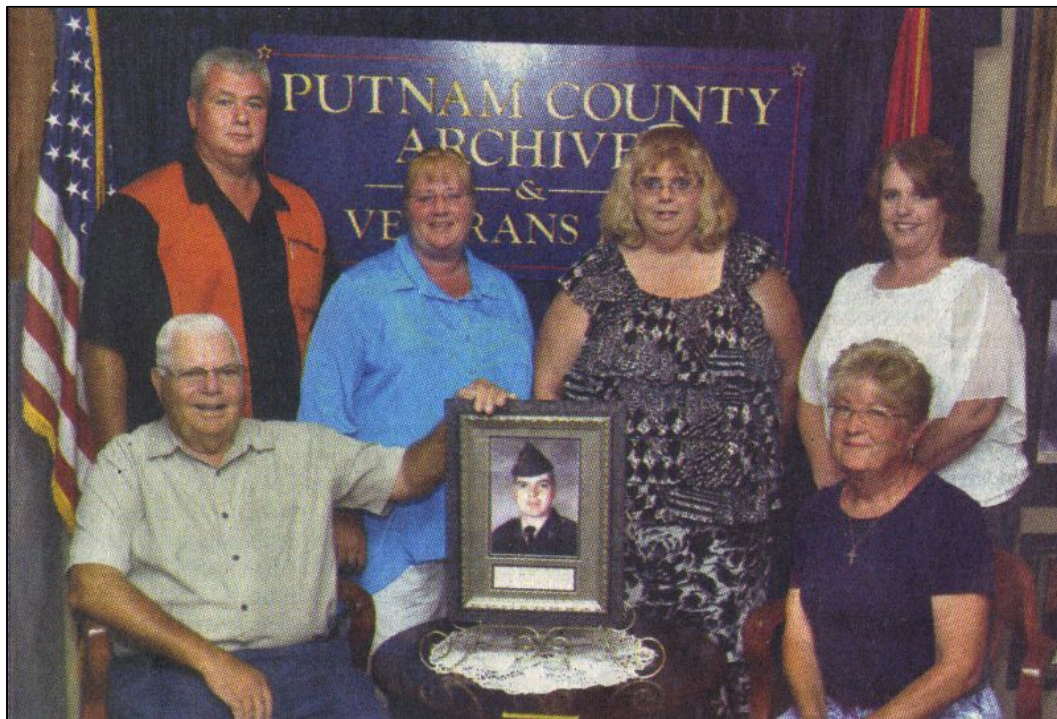

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 25 June 2013.

ARMY SGT. VALOUS MAYLON WHITEFIELD
ARMY STAFF SGT. C. D. WHITEFIELD
ARMY CPL. RICHARD H. WHITEFIELD

The Whitefield Brothers, seated, from left, Army Sgt. Valous Maylon Whitefield (also in left framed photo), the late Army Sgt. C. D. Whitefield (center photo) and Army Cpl. Richard H. Whitefield (right photo) are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Valous served during World War II in the Pacific theatre of operations with engagements in Morotai and New Guinea. The late C. D. Whitefield served during World War II in the European theatre, with engagements in Normandy, Rhineland, Ardennas, Northern France and Central Europe. He was awarded the Purple Heart, Bronze Star, European-African Middle Eastern Ribbon with one Silver Star, sharpshooters medal, and combat infantry badge. He died in December of 2006 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Richard served in the Military Police in the 101st Division in Germany. He trained at Fort Campbell, KY.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 2 July 2013.

U.S. ARMY GLEN DOLAN BILBREY SR.

U. S. Army member Glen Dolan Bilbrey Sr., seated left, with his wife Loretta, and children, including son Glen Dolan Bilbrey Jr., and daughters Traci Massengill, Tammie Allred and Kimberly Gragg, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served in the Vietnam War from 1967-1969, receiving the Purple Heart and Bronze Star Medal with "V" Device. He was a light weapons infantryman.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 9 July 2013.

ARMY I-4 TECHNICIAN 4 JOHN TUBB PULLUM

The late Army I-4 Technician 4 John Tubb Pullum, represented by daughter Rosemary Burger (of Chattsworth, Ga.), son Lonnie Pullum, and daughter Linda Goodwin, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Pullum served during World War II during the Invasion of Normandy, ferrying troops. He was awarded the Bronze Star for historic acts on Moselle River, Germany. He passed away in 1975 and is buried in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea

US ARMY PRIVATE FRIST CLASS HENRY CLAY PRICE

The late U.S. Army Private First Class Henry Clay Price, represented by family, from left, great-nephew Jeffrey Freeman, niece Mitzi Freeman, and great-nephews Chris Freeman and Steve Freeman, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Henry served during World War II, serving as a rifle sharpshooter in Normandy, Northern France, Ardennes, Rhineland, European, African, and middle Eastern Operations. He died April 6, 201 and is buried in Davis Cemetery.

U. S. NAVY SC 2C WILLIAM H. TAYLOR

The late U. S. Navy SC 2C William H. Taylor, represented by son, Jack Taylor, seated left, grandson Jim Taylor and standing, grandson Mike Taylor, is the Herald-Citizen of the Week. In the photo with William are his wife, Susan Taylor, son Jack, daughter Nancy Whorton and his other son Bob. William served during World War II in Okinawa, the Philippine Islands and Iwo Jima in the Pacific Theater of Operation; He died April 15, 1989, and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 30 July 2013.

US ARMY PFC HARON WOOLBRIGHT - 637TH TANK DESTROYER BATTALION HARLEY WOOLBRIGHT
ARMY JESSIE RAY POSTON - EDDLEY POSTON VIETNAM
ARMY JAMES POSTON

U.S. Army PFC Haron Woolbright, right, with wife Wilma Matayo, along with photos (from left) of his brother, Harley, himself, and step-sons, Jessie Ray Poston, Eddley Grey Poston, James Poston and Joe Terry Poston, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Harley served during WWII in the 637th Tank Destroyer Battalion, 605 Heavy Machine Gunner in Luzon, Northern Solomon, Philippine Liberation. Harold served in the Army during WWII in the battle of Ryukuys, Okinawa, combat rifleman, Army of Occupation of Japan and received a Purple Heart. Jessie served in the Army as a radio repairman, trained in administration in Fort Lewis, Washington D. C. Eddley served in the Army during the Vietnam War and received the Vietnam Campaign Medal, Bronze Star Medal and the National Defense Service Medal W/OLC. James served in the Army 4th Signal Co., 4th Infantry Division during the occupation of Germany. Joe served in the Army and received the Mar Roman Badge and Marksman Badge (Cargin). Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 6 August 2013.

U.S. ARMY CPL. SAMUEL F. GIBBONS

U.S. Army Cpl. Samuel F. Gibbons, seated left, with family Onda Gibbons, wife; and Philip Gibbons, son and, standing, from left, granddaughters Leann Gibbons and Julie Gibbons and daughter-in-law Sue Gibbons, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Gibbons served after World War II and during the Korean Conflict after being drafted in 1946, serving in the 1st Infantry Regiment, and was redrafted in 1951 where he served in Germany HQ CO. He's lived in Algood since 1945.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 13 August 2013.

US ARMY 1ST LT. JOHN DOUGLAS WALL, US ARMY COL. JAMES THOMAS WALL US MARINE CORPS PFC WILKES HAMMOCK WALL JR.

The Wall brothers, U. S. Army 1st Lt. John Douglas Wall, seated left, and U. S. Army Col. James Thomas Wall, seated right, also representing their late brother U. S. Marine Corps PFC Wilkes Hammock Wall Jr., are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Also pictured are Lula Wall Bartholomew and Anita Wall Moore, sisters. John Douglas Wall served during the Korean War, working as courts and boards officer stationed at Fort Gordon, GA. James Thomas Wall was assigned as military attaché to Latin America and was an adjunct professor at U. S. Military Academy at West Point. Wilkes Hammock Wall Jr. served during WWII in the Pacific Theater of Operation, stationed in Hawaii. He died in March of 1990 and is buried in Algood Cemetery.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 13 August 2013.

U.S. NAVY RADARMAN SEAMAN JOHN ROBERT WYATT & NAVY TE3 HARVEY JARVIS MATHENEY JR.

U. S. Navy Radarman Seaman John Robert Wyatt, right, and U. S. Navy TE 3 Harvey Jarvis Matheney Jr., left, are the Herald-Citizen Veterans of the Week. Both enlisted in the Navy Sept. 18, 1952, with John serving as a radar man on the USS Kearsarge CVA 33 during the Korean Conflict. Harvey also served during the Korean Conflict aboard L.S.T. 1090, Pacific Ocean, stationed at Midway Island and Pearl Harbor. Photo by Ty Kernea.

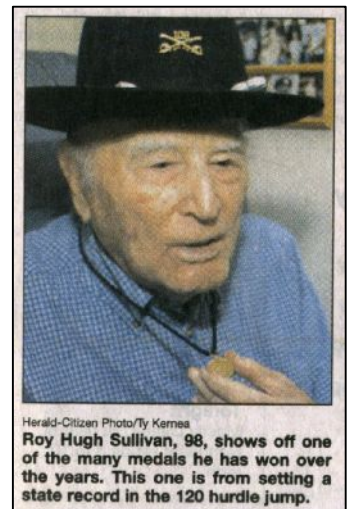

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 3 September 2013.

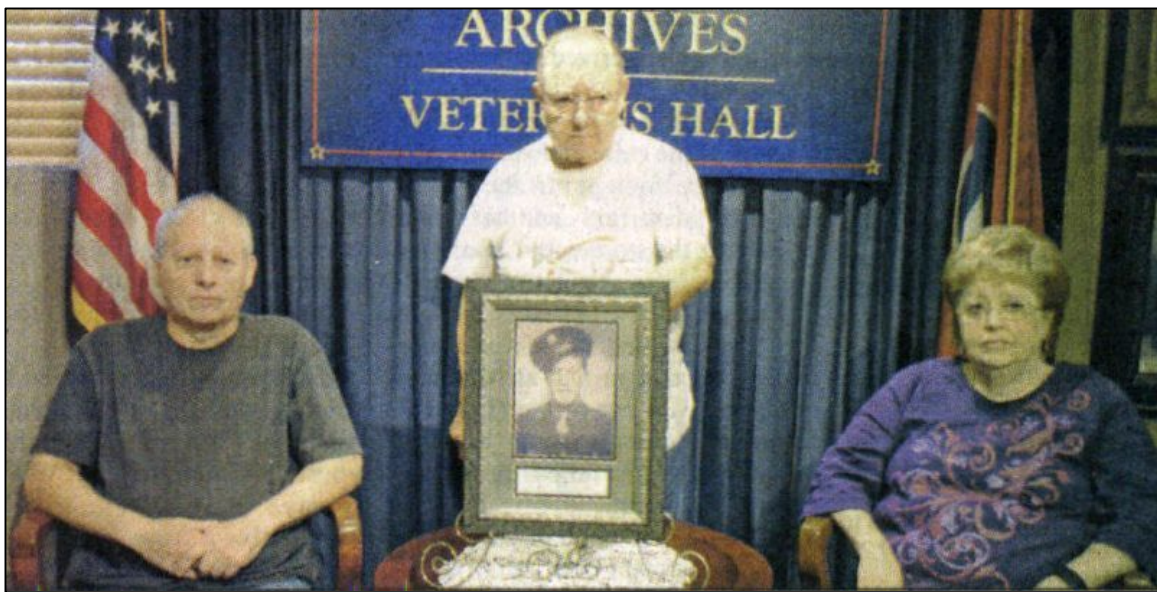

U. S. ARMY COL. ROY HUGH SULLIVAN

The late U. S. Army Col. Roy Hugh Sullivan, represented by great-grandsons Jacob and Sullivan Angel, seated, along with his daughter, Sharon Angel Clark, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Sullivan served in the Phillipine Islands and Camp Forrest, Camp Bowie, Fort Hood and Fort Benning. He was born 1 September 1910, Clay Co., TN – d. 15 February 2010, Monterey, TN and md on the 3rd of February 1935, Albany, KY to Patricia (Davis) Sullivan (1917-2007), both buried in Cookeville City Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN. Photo by Ty Kernea. *See Roy Hugh Sullivan Celebrates His 99th Birthday at: <http://www.ajlambert.com>.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 10 September 2013.

U. S. ARMY PRIVATE FIRST CLASS BILL BROWN

The late U. S. Army Private First Class Bill Brown, represented by son William “Billy” Brown Jr., left, daughter Barbara Brown Denson and son-in-law Archie Denson, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served during World War II in the infantry as a cook helper in the Philippine Islands in the Southern Pacific Theater of Operation. He died October 28, 1998, and is buried in Hermitage Cemetery. Photo by Megan Trotter.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 17 September 2013.

U. S. ARMY AIR CORPS PVT. WILKES HAMMOCK WALL SR.

The late U. S. Army Air Corps Private Wilkes Hammock Wall Sr., represented by children John D. Wall, seated left, and James T. Wall, and standing, daughters Lula Wall Bartholomew and Anita Wall Moore, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served during World War I in France. He died in March of 1953 and is buried in Algood Cemetery. For more about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 24 September 2013.

U. S. ARMY PFC BURL EARL TINCH

The late U. S. Army PFC Burl Earl Tinch, represented by sister Leona Tinch Wheeler and nephew Jim Wheeler, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Tinch served during World War II from 1943-1945, serving with the 124th Infantry in the Pacific Theater, Philippine Islands and New Guinea. He was awarded the Bronze Star and Purple Heart for service. For more about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 1 October 2013.

UNION PRIVATE LEROY A. VAUGHN

The late Union Private Leroy A. Vaughn, who served with Company C, First Tennessee Mounted infantry during the Civil War, represented by, seated, from left, great-granddaughters Marlene Allison and Maybell Hicks, and, standing, great-great-granddaughter Marsha Hicks, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Vaughn was born in 1834 in Buffalo Valley, Putnam Co., TN and died in 1925. He is buried in Myrtle Pippin Cemetery.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 8 October 2013.

ARMY T4 JOHN TUBB PULLUM

The late Army T4 John Tubb Pullum. Represented by his children, from left, Rosemary Burger (of Chattsworth, GA), Lonnie Pullum and Linda Goodwin, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. John served during World War II during the invasion of Normandy, ferrying troops and was awarded the Bronze Star for his heroic acts on Moselle River, Germany. He died in 1975 and is buried in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 15 October 2013.

US ARMY PRIVATE FIRST CLASS JAMES ARTHUR HAYES JR.

The late U. S. Army Private First Class James Arthur Hayes Jr., represented by daughters, in front, from left, Emma Roberts, Edith Tubbs, Mattie Woods and Jeanetta Howard; and sons, standing, from left, James Dean Hayes, William Curtis Hayes, Donald C. Hayes and Jerry Hayes, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. He served during World War II with the 1862nd Engineers Battalion during the Asiatic-Pacific Theater of Operation. He died in 1983 and is buried in Algood Cemetery. For more about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 22 October 2013.

UNION PRIVATE JOHN WILLIAM HANEY

The late Union Private John William Haney of the Double Springs area, represented by his grandson, Cpl. Ridley Mitchell Haney, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. John served during the Civil War from Feb. 24, 1864-May 25, 1865, serving in Company H, in the 1st Tennessee Mounted Infantry. While serving, he was wounded on his right side and lost a leg. Photo by Megan Trotter.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 19 November 2013.

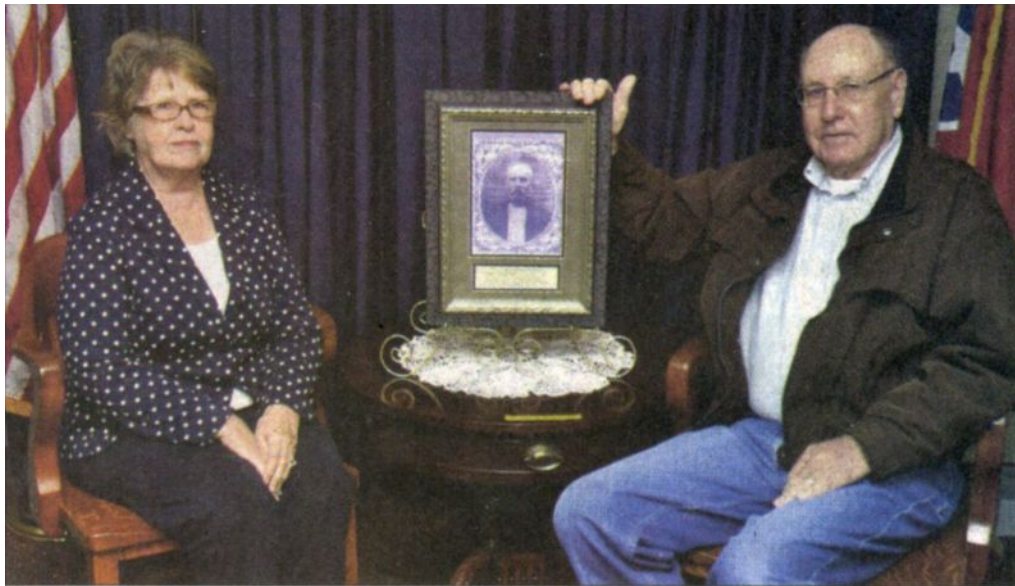

CORPORAL RIDLEY MITCHELL HANEY

Corporal Ridley Mitchell Haney of Cookeville, left, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Pictured with daughter, Betty Haney Wallace, Haney served in the Army during World War II in the 5th Army 34th Division, Company I, Rome-Arno. He served in the European, African, Middle Eastern and Italy theatre. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call 520-0042. Megan Trotter | Herald-Citizen

Corp. Ridley Mitchell Haney of Cookeville, left, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Pictured with daughter, Betty Haney Wallace, Haney served in the Army during World War II in the 5th Army 34th Division, Company I, Rome-Arno. He served in the European, African, Middle Eastern and Italy theatre. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 26 November 2013.

UNION PRIVATE JOHN JACKSON BRADFORD

The late Union Private John Jackson Bradford, represented by family members Ruby McHenry, left, and her husband and Bradford's great-grandson James McHenry, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Bradford served during the Civil War from 1863-1865, enlisting in the E. 1st Tenn. Mounted Infantry. He died Dec. 14, 1917. For more information about the Putnam County Veterans Hall, call (931) 520-0042. Photo by Ty Kernea | Herald-Citizen.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 10 December 2013.

U. S. ARMY TEC 5 J. C. MAYNARD

The late U. s. Army Tec 5 J. C. Maynard, represented by daughters Melinda Brewington, left, and Cherl Crouch, is the Herald-Citizen Veteran of the Week. Maynard served in Co., E, 804th Engineers, Gilbert Islands, Spain, Marianas, Baker Island and Christmas Island. He survived the bombing of Pearl Harbor and the jungles of the South Pacific. He died 27 March 2010, Cookeville, TN, the last survivor of Pearl Harbor to die in Putnam County, and is buried in Tightfit Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN. He was the son of Larkin "Lark" Maynard Sr.(1890-1972) & Amanda "Mandy" Catherine Jernigan (1896-1977).

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 17 December 2013.