

WHUB's 50th ANNIVERSARY
Special to the Herald Citizen and Plus: 17 July 1990
Herald Citizen Newspaper, Cookeville, TN

THANK YOU

Fifty years is a milestone that seldom goes unnoticed. A fiftieth birthday, fiftieth wedding anniversary or, in our case, fifty years of broadcasting.

It's only natural that we reflect back over those years. So much has happened. The world is so vastly different from the way it was on that hot summer day in 1940 when we started on this venture.

This special newspaper section serves to remind us of just a few of the highlights of those fifty years. And, as we reflect on some of the things that have transpired, we tend to focus on the people with whom we have been associated.

There are so many of you to whom we owe a debt of gratitude for friendship and support during this half-century. We wish we could say "Thank You" to each of you individually. And we hope that you will accept this as a personal message of appreciation.

We want to thank every person who has been a part of WHUB's listening audience, every businessperson whose use of WHUB advertising has helped make our broadcasts possible, and each individual and firm that has supplied goods and services necessary for our operation.

Without an audience, we would have had no purpose; without a clientele, we could not have survived; and without our suppliers, we could not have existed.

How do you express appreciation for fifty years of loyalty and friendship and support? We can only offer a very simple and humble "thank You." Thank you so very much.

Yours truly,

Luke Medley
