Farm, Home News

As it was back in the beginning, so it is in 1990. WHUB understands the importance of the farm and presents a number of farm extension agent experts to keep the farm public informed about farm news.

County Farm Agent Jackie Donaldson is just one of the many farm specialists who regularly discuss farm and farm-related topics on WHUB radio.

Other extension leaders who act as hosts on farm programs here include Donna Clouse, Alan Galloway, Scott Chadwell, and Greg Upchurch.

In addition to farm news, these extension agents have news concerning 4-H, Putnam County Fair, and from Home Demonstration Clubs in the area.
