Roe Huddleston's Death Occurs Friday at His Home Near Gentry.

Isaac Monroe Huddleston was born October 1, 1858 and died July 3, 1936 at his home near Gentry, at the age of seventy seven years and nine months. He joined the M. E. Church at the Old Pleasant Grove at the age of fifteen years and had lived a devoted Christian life since.

He was married to Virginia Frances Robinson, September 19, 1930 and to this union eight children were born, four of whom survive him, O. D. Huddleston, Mamie Huddleston, Jane Huddleston and Adavil Huddleston.

His death though not unexpected, brought sorrow and grief to the hearts of his many friends and relatives for he was a life long resident of the Gentry community and was fondly known as "Uncle Roe" by old and young.

He lived a life of simple honesty, which should be an example for those who follow him.

Funeral serves were conducted Friday afternoon at Pleasant Grove by the Rev. E. M. Wilcox followed by burial at the Uncle Frank Huddleston graveyard.

Active pallbearers were Forrest Anderson, Claude and Harwood Huddleston, Doss Stanton, and Charlie Apple, all nephews of the deceased.
