The first Mormon sermon, Alfred Douglas Young, heard was preached by Elder John McIntosh by whom he was baptized in July 1841 in Gibson, TN. In February 1842 he and his brother William went to Jackson Co., TN on a visit to their parents, and there preached and baptized fifteen or twenty persons. He moved to Nauvoo in 1842 and was ordained by President Joseph Young into the 10th Quorum of Seventies. He was on a mission in the Southern States when the Prophet Joseph Smith and his brother Hyrum were martyred. He came to the Great Salt Lake Valley in 1848 and settled in Big Cottonwood with his family. In the spring of 1854 he moved to Provo, where he lived until the fall of 1868, and served as member of the City Council for some years. he was ordained senior President of the 52nd Quorum of Seventy by President Joseph Young on May 21, 1857. In the fall of '68 he was called to the Muddy Mission. In 1871 he went to Kanab where he continued to dwell until his death. He donated liberally to public improvements and helped towards the erection of three temples.

He was a man of great faith and experienced many manifestations of power of God, to which he bore a faithful testimony to the end of his life.

Alfred Douglas Young was married four times (1) Malinda Talbert McIntosh, (2) Annie Mundane Chappel, (3) Jane Watson Sanford, (4) Rhoda Byrne Jared Young. Book of Jared – pg. 163
