

DOUBLE FUNERAL SERVICE SET FOR LAST OF COUNTY'S AIR CRASH VICTIMS

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN
1 January 1953, front page

Funeral services for the last two of the four Putnam County boys killed in the crash of a C-124 Globemaster plane at Moses Lake, WA, Saturday, December 20, have been set for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in a double ceremony in the auditorium of Monterey High School.

Bodies of the two servicemen, Paul Eugene Vaden, and Van Nickens, Jr., of Monterey, arrived Wednesday. Final arrangements were completed by the families of the boys, who were high school classmates and buddies in the service, Tuesday night. A double military funeral will be held with a detachment of airmen from Sewart AFB taking part. W. R. Allen of Strawberry Palms, former pastor of the Monterey Baptist Church, which both boys attended will conduct the services. Interment will be in the Whitaker Cemetery.

The father of one of the boys Van Nickens, Sr., is in a serious condition at Monterey Hospital and final arrangements were also delayed pending word from Bobby Nickens, a brother who is on Navy duty in Japan.

Services Held For Two:

Services were held Tuesday afternoon for a third victim, Robert Neal Dalton, at the Boiling Springs Baptist Church with Dr. Harry L. Upperman officiating. Dr. Upperman was assisted by Willie Cato, Nashville minister. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Rites for Alvin C. Jared the fourth victim, were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Baxter Methodist Church with Dr. Upperman in charge. Interment was in the Maxwell cemetery at Baxter.

Airman Dalton is survived by his mother, Mrs. Minnie Austin Dalton, three brothers, James and Jack Herman, of Baxter and Billy Joe Dalton, of Cookeville; one sister, Mrs. Charlie Mae Bain, of Oak Ridge.
