

WILLIAM JARRATT/JARED, REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER

William Jarratt/Jared was a Revolutionary War soldier of Loudoun Co., Virginia and a Tennessee pioneer that settled in Tennessee prior to statehood, June 1, 1796. He was born 3 June 1758 in Kingwood, New Jersey, probably at the Old Quaker Colony of Hunterdon, Co. where his maternal grandparents John & Naomi Hulme Whitacre lived. He was the son of John Jared and Hannah Whitacre. John Jared had a wagon-making business in Loudoun Co., Virginia, in the very northern tip of the state where Maryland is pierced almost to the Pennsylvania line. When William was just a boy his mother died on the 8th of November 1765 and his father was left with three children to raise on his own, William, Joseph and Naomi Jared. His father remarried a young 18 year old girl named Rachel Palmer on 23 August 1767.

John, William and Joseph are listed in the Loudoun Co., Virginia tithables for both 1778 & 1779 proving their residence during the Revolutionary War. The backwoods people of Virginia were fiercely patriotic to the cause of freedom and independent government. When the war for independence came in William's young manhood, he was torn between the Quaker leanings of his mother's family and his duty to the home and county he had helped his father wrest from rugged nature. The peaceful Quaker religion allowed no participation in war for any reason. Now the Jared home was threatened and John and his two oldest sons, William and Joseph, marched away to defend it. John Jared kept an account book and there is one page in the book devoted to transactions with his son, William. The entries read: "In yr. 1781 by work done by him (William) at home – I went to camp." and In 1782, "By guarding the prisoners at Winchester." In the book Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution, 1775-1783 by John H. Gwathmey, on page 414 there is a soldier listed as, William Jarret, Loudoun Militia, listed as the same in the book List of the Revolutionary Soldiers of Virginia by H. J. Eckenrode, Archivist, page 239.

William Jared married Anne Elizabeth "Besty" Roulston/Raulston on 2 December 1792, in Jefferson Co., Tennessee (prior to statehood). She was born 6 January 1770, Bedford Co., VA, the daughter of Revolutionary War patriot Matthew Raulston (1742-1800) & Martha Moore (1744-1806). William and his bride settled on property located near Buffalo Valley in Jackson Co., (now 11th Dist., Putnam Co.)

Tennessee. They raised nine children, Moses, Martha, Naomi, Joseph, Ruth, William, Samuel, John and Matthew Jared. William Jared died on 22 September 1827 at his homestead. His wife Anne Elizabeth died 18 June 1835 at the same residence and they are both buried in the William Jared cemetery, resting in a quiet country setting where the sounds of Indian Creek, rustling leaves and singing birds are found.

John & Ann lived in the 11th Civil Dist., Putnam Co., TN and are buried in the John and Ann Carr Jared Cemetery across the road from the William Jared Cemetery. Matthew Raulston Jared (1813-1847) never married.

On the 20th of October 2007 a dedication was held at the William Jared Cemetery after a full clean-up, repaired tombstones and a fence was installed. The community worked together on the project, funds, planning and the physical labor of love brought a positive result. Special attention to the clean-up work was performed by Robert Shanks, Ted Huddleston and his sons, Donnie & Gary. A historical entrance sign that had been commissioned by Audrey June (Denny) Lambert & Jean Allen Hudson was unveiled by Jean as an appropriate talk was given by Audrey. The sign is cast aluminum, doubled sided with the names and dates of the people known buried in the cemetery on one side and William Jarratt/Jared's dates and Revolutionary service shown on the other side with the official NSDAR insignia. The sign was made by Sewah Studios of Marietta, OH and was installed by Michael Henry Lambert and Ted Huddleston.

A large audience of over 100 people attended this event on the farm of Robert Anderson Shanks. Seventy one years had gone by since a crowd of descendants gathered to pay tribute to their ancestors buried in this cemetery that includes the families of the Jareds, Dennys, Byrnes, Edmonds and others that have not been identified. Over 44 field stones and pieces of broken markers were found marking at least up to 60 more graves. The last time a gathering was held at this cemetery was in May of 1936 when descendants of John (1737-aft.1804), William & Joseph Jared (1760-1848) honored the memory of their ancestors of the Revolutionary War and gave tribute to William & Joseph Jared who were prominent pioneer residents of what is now Putnam County. Beautiful flowers that will never decay.

Gathered by angels and carried a way,

Forever to bloom in the Master's bouquet".

DENNY, AGNES: We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Agnes Denny, which occurred at her home near Buffalo Valley, in this county on last Monday. Mrs. Denny was the wife of John Denny and mother of the Judge T. L. Denny and Silas Denny of Cookeville. She had been in feeble health for some time past, being well advanced in years, but her death came unexpected to her family and friends. Mrs. Denny was a noble hearted, Christian woman, having been a consistent and devoted member of the Baptist church all her life. She lived to raise to man and womanhood a large and respectable family of children and drew around her a large and devoted circle of friends who will sadly miss and mourn her loss. To the stricken family and children we extend deepest sympathy and sincerest regrets in this hour of their sore afflictions. [Date 6/21/1894, Vol. VII, No. 34, Page 5]

Herald Newspaper, Cookeville, TN

The pale horse and his rider, with relentless power is persistent with frequent visits to our community taking our very best, and leaving only grief and empty hearts. But death can only conquer the flesh, the soul belongeth to our father, who gave it.

Just a few weeks ago, death claimed as a victim, Mrs. Hettie Paul Denny, the sainted mother of Minnie M. and Virgil T. Denny, their father having preceded their mother to rest some twenty three years. This mother reared her children in a Christian home, faithfully serving her Lord and Master. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and a living example to the entire community. These are not idle words of tribute but come from one who loved her as a friend and neighbor. The entire neighborhood loved and honored “Aunt Hettie” as she was affectionately called by most everyone, and we have yet to hear it said that she had even one enemy in all the world. She was indeed a blessing to this community.

The many relatives and friends of Jonathan Denny will sincerely regret to learn of his death, which occurred at his home in the eleventh District of Putnam County last Thursday. He was taken sick with pneumonia the preceeding Sunday. We learn that he was perfectly conscious until the last, and died happy in the love of his Lord and Savior and the full assurance of the immortality of the Soul and his peace with the Heavenly Father.

Mr. Denny was born in North Carolina and was brought to this county when quite young being one of the pioneers who were deprived even of an ordinary education, being about eighty-one years old at the time of his death.

He was a quiet, unpretentious farmer and never sought or desired public attention, but contented himself with the walks of rural life or “life on the farm.” He was always a moral, sober gentlemen of the old type now fast fading out of view, a friend of law and order, with all his neighbors as devoted friends who will cherish his memory and uphold his good name. He was the father of a large and interesting family of children among whom are Judge T. L. Denny and Silas Denny, prominent and well known citizens of this city. In common with his numerous friends, the PRESS joins in expression of regret and genuine sorrow.
