

Mary Coleman Harris Goolsby
Nashville Tennessean Newspaper – 29 June 2001

May 11, 1925 – June 28, 2001. Died peacefully at home. Originally from Waverly, TN, Mrs. Goolsby was preceded in death by husband, J.B. Goolsby; mother, Anne Fowlkes Harris Boden; father, James C. Harris, II; sister, Anne Coldwell Harris Lee; and brother, James C. Harris, III. Survived by loving children David (Janice) Goolsby, carole (Ronald) Pettus, and Dianne (Lynn) Griffith; grandchildren, Abe (Shannon) Goolsby, Beth (Jarrett) Hale, Ella (Jonathan) Pettit, Jared Goolsby, Jacob Goosby, Mark Pettus, Jay Pettus, Scott Pettus, Matthew Griffith, and Coleman Griffith; great-grandchildren, Aston and Sophie Goolsby. Mrs. Goolsby was a long-time member at Jackson Park and Harpeth Hills Churches of Christ. She recently attended services at Granny White Church of Christ. According to her wishes, Mrs. Goolsby's remains have been donated to Vanderbilt Medical Research. On Sunday, July 1, the family will receive friends from 2 until 3 p.m., at the Granny White Church of Christ Chapel. A memorial service will be conducted by family members at 3 p.m., immediately following the visitation. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Healing Hands International, 208 Space Park Drive, Nashville, TN 37211. Woodbine Funeral Home, Hickory Chapel, Directors, 331-1952.

See Chapter 9 - J.B. Goolsby, s/o Oscar A. Goolsby & Flossie Mae Jernigan md Mary Coleman Harris.*