Biography

Jackson was born in 1815. Jackson Maxwell ... He passed away in 1865. Buried on Carr Ridge Zeb Carr Farm.

Family Stories Murder of Andrew Jackson Maxwell By: David Montgomery In 2010 a distant cousin Harold Ralph Maynard told me a story regarding an Ambush-Murder of my 3rd great grand uncle Andrew Jackson Maxwell by some of his (my) own kin folk whom were later indicted for his murder.

I decided to take a more in depth examination of this story and went to Putnam County Library, Ancestry Research Area and found the hand written court recorder's record of the indictment procedure in an old Putnam County Circuit Court book Brief Overview: The American Civil War created terrible inner family and neighbor divisions and hatred in much of the Eastern half of Tennessee. Grievances sometimes led to ambushing; better known then as "Bushwhacking". The bitter divisions of allegiances to one side or other put kin folk fighting and dying on opposite sides of the battle fields. The killings didn't stop after the war was officially over; grudges were still to be settled. My 4th great grandfather Samuel Maxwell had five sons and five daughters. His sons David Woods Maxwell and Andrew Jackson Maxwell fought for the confederacy while son Samuel and some of the son-in-laws fought for the Union, as did relatives 2nd great grandfather Craven Michael Shanks, 2nd great grandfather Amos Vaughn and Craven's brother William Henry Shanks. Andrew Jackson Maxwell was called by his middle name Jackson. He was born 27 Feb 1815. In 1837 he married Martha Jane Maddux a daughter of my 3rd great grandfather Craven Maddux who came to Tennessee from Virginia. Jackson Maxwell and first wife Martha had five children. Martha died in 1850 and in 1855 Jackson Maxwell married Matilda E Bennitt with whom he had five more children. Jackson's son Thomas B Maxwell a member of L Company, 35th Infantry Division CSA died in the civil war on 24 Dec 1863. Jackson Maxwell was a spy for the Confederate Army. His information forwarded to the confederacy resulted in the death of some of his Union sympathizing kin and neighbors. His kinsman and my 2nd great grand uncle William Henry Shanks sent Jackson a message of warning to say he'd be killed when war was over. One instance of how Andrew Jackson Maxwell's information helped the Confederate Calvary is told in the following story: 2nd Great grandfather Craven Shanks secretly came home from the war to help the family kill hogs. His son Robert was a distance away on the lookout while Craven and two other men went about the hog killing. Soon Robert hollered: "they're coming". A group of Confederate Calvary men were coming fast down upon them so they took off running through the woods. Craven ran down a path where a large tree had fallen across, he jumped over the tree and slid down under it from the far side. As he slid under the tree a large piece of bark scooted off the tree and concealed him. The Confederate Calvary with their horses jumped the log never noticing Craven hidden there. They continued on down the trail chasing the two other men, probably killing them. When the war officially ended Andrew Jackson Maxwell came home to his family in Putnam County TN. On 11 September 1865 while on his way to visit an old Confederate Veteran friend named Zeb Carr he was viciously bushwhacked and killed there on Carr Ridge. Two years later Andrew Jackson Maxwell's widow Matilda Maxwell filed a law suit against the men she claimed was responsible for the murder of her husband. An exact word for word transition of the hand written indictment follows:

Netherland Cass and Mary Francis Crowell and children along with "Bill" Maxwell and "Jim" Maxwell and families left Buffalo Valley, TN in 1897 and either brought or homesteaded land on top of a mountain in northwest Jackson County, in Paint Rock Valley, AL. This mountain was named "Maxwell Mountain". They made a living working in timber. I saw an old picture once of the sons using oxen to drag out logs. I have only been to the Crowell Cemetery twice in 1947 & 1976, its only accessible by four wheel drive or walking and it takes about 4 hours to walk in to it.

The County seat of Jackson County is Scottsboro.

Hope to see you all.

Edsel Crowell.

She was loved and highly respected by the entire community, and her exceedingly sunny disposition, affable manner, and strict adherence to the principles or right and duty had endeared her to all she came in contact with.

Silas W. Gentry Called By Death:

Silas W. Gentry was born October 30, 1857, near Baxter, TN, departed this life January 11, 1932, age 74 years, 2 months and 13 days.

He was married to Miss Mary Robinson Maxwell on April 4, 1876. to this union was born 13 children, eight boys and five girls.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, L. C. of Paden, OK, and Albert, of Oak Hill, WV, four daughters, Mrs. Benton Wilkerson and Mrs. Joe Ramsey, of Cookeville, Mrs. C. W. Coleman and Miss Bezzie Gentry, of Baxter. Besides the immediate family, he leaves five brothers, John, of Baxter, R. O., of Cookeville, Sterling, of McEwen, Joe, of TX, and Elmore, of Monterey; three sisters, Mrs. Joe Leftwich, Mrs. Hick Maxwell, of Baxter, and Mrs. John Duke, of Nashville, and several grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn his departure.

Silas W. Gentry was a true type of the old line citizenship. Possessing to the fullest extent a genuine hospitality he always met you with a smile and never failed to invite you into his home to spend the day or the night, as the case might be.

He was always interested in all public questions and was never too busy to chat with his friends, at the same time he has demonstrated to the world that an honest living could be made and a large family could be reared on a small, poor farm. He did not forget the great Bible question, "What would it profit a man if he gained the whole world and lost his own soul?" He obeyed the gospel and was baptized by Rev. Williams in 1905, and lived a faithful Christian life until the end. Religiously speaking as in all other principles of life, he was true to his convictions and was always to be found at his post of duty. Although he lived two miles from the meeting house in which he worshipped and in spite of the fact that he was made a cripple by a fall on an icy street in Cookeville, forced to use a crutch or crutches for the remainder of his life (about five years) he would often make the two miles along a narrow, muddy road on foot through the mud, the snow and the rain, ready to perform his duty and contribute his mite on the Lord's Day.

The family has lost a good companion and father, the State has lost a good citizen, and the church has lost a most excellent member.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ by Chester Patton and J. P. Watson; also O. H. Tallman was present and made a talk.

The body was laid to rest in the Gran Maxwell cemetery to await the judgment morn.

Death Claims Prominent Man:

Clarence Whitaker, 46, died at his home on Roaring River Saturday night, January 27th, at 12 o'clock, following an illness of aboutt fourteen days of measles and pneumonia.

This was indeed a sad thing, and something that I feel too touche to write about. Mr. Whitaker was a man of sterling character, and a man of few faults. His motto all though life has been to do good for everybody and that has been one thing he has always taught his family to do and he requested on his death bed that they would always continue to do good to everybody.

Mr. Whitaker became a member of the Methodist church sometime in early life and we feel satisfied that the guardian angels are protecting him now and forever.

Mr. Whitaker will certainly be missed by each and every person who knew him and our deepest sympathy is extended to his family. there was no man on earth who loved his family better than he did and he stated on his death bed how he hated to leave them, although he was anxious to go home, and wanted them to promise to met him there.

Those who are left to mourn his depature are his wife and six children: Max Morgan, Willene, Melvin, Junior, Beatrice and Ellis Howard, and one grandchild, Jean Garrett. His mother, Mrs. Tilda Whitaker, five sisters, Mrs. Roscoe Davis and Mrs. Elbert Carson, of Harriman, TN, Mrs. Chs. Maxwell, Mrs. Kirk Quarles and Mrs. John Morgan Vanhooser, all of Jackson county, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. M. Dycus and Rev. Tom Berry at the home. Burial was in the family cmemetery on Mr. Will Overton's place.

MAXWELL-FARLEY

By Quimby Dyer

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 22 March 1923

The Upper Cumberland counties are counties that any boy should be proud to live in. the pure mountain atmosphere, the beautiful hills and valleys, the sparkling streams, and the charm of the trees, the flowers, the birds, create geniuses in many line, business and professional. The greatest fighter of the World war, Alvin C. York, lives in Fentress county. The governor Tennessee from 1919-21, A. H. Roberts, received his inspiration as a lawyer, thinker and speaker in the hills of Overton county. The national chairman of the democratic party, Cordell Hull, was born and reared on the banks of the Cumberland, in Clay county, in the rich bottoms of Jackson county, the president of the United States found John J. Gore, now federal judge for Middle Tennessee.

Putnam county has the honor of producing two of the great business men of Tennessee, Gillem Maxwell and R. L. Farley. Both were born in Putnam county and have lived here practically all of their lives. These gentlemen formed a partnership in 1909 to engage in the timber business. From that time up to the present their business has developed wonderfully. The spoke industry of Tennessee is under their control. The egg case industry of the South is also under their management. They own and operate many saw mills in Tennessee, Kentucky and Mississippi and are the owners of many thousands of acres of fine timber land in each of these states. Their products are sold in practically every state in the Union, Canada, South America and in many European countries in far-off China and Japan.

Mr. Maxwell is a man that is not afraid to do things. This was shown in 1920 when Cookeville was suffering for the want of business houses. No one would build on account of the inflated prices of labor and material then prevailing. Mr. Maxwell said, "The town must have the buildings. I will build them myself." And he did. One building after another was erected, all modern and up-to-date. Today he is decidedly the largest owner of business property in Cookeville.

A citizen of the first rank, public-spirited and open-hearted; always ready with his time and money to help not only his town but anyone in distress; a pleasant gentleman to be with and an all-round, first class man. He is president of the Gainesboro Telephone Co.; director in several banks and many other business enterprises; a member of the City School Board and mayor of Cookeville for two terms, from 1917-21.

Mr. Farley has as much serve as his partner and is not afraid to back his judgment with his money. He was cashier of the Bank of Cookeville for many years, and through him more than any other man, this Upper country owes its gratitude. Seeing the possibilities of the timber industry he financed every legitimate enterprise to the limit. We today are gathering the fruits of these many industries finances in the beginning by him. Putnam county, on account of these activities, is one of the most progressive counties in the state today. Mr. Farley always greets you with a smile and pleasant word. A gentleman of the highest type; ready at all times to help Cookeville with his time and means. He is vice-president of the Gainesboro Telephone Co.; member of the City School Board and has been for many years; also a director in several banks and corporations.

Cookeville and Putnam county should be and are proud of these two big public-spirited business men.

Day Named in Dunavin's Honor on 100th Birthday:

Putnam County native Wade Dunavin celebrated his April 9 100th birthday in a very unique way. The special day was proclaimed Wade Dunavin Day at Ft. Lyon, Colo., VA Medical Center where he currently resides.

Dunavin, born here on April 9, 1892, is the oldest of 13 children, three of whom are still living. He was honored at a public reception where over 300 friends extended best wishes to celebrate the event.

He is currently a resident of the nursing care unit where he worked as a nursing assistant for 30 years. His wife, a spry woman nearing her 90th birthday, said she is amazed her husband's ability to recall details from their early years in the area.

Approximately 60 family members, including his youngest brother, William Dunavin of Dexter, MI, youngest sister, Evelyn Brewer of San Diego, Calif., and a host of nieces and nephews attended the celebration. Two brothers, the late Leonard and Taylor Dunavin who lived in Algood and Baxter were represented by their daughters, Dolores Nichols and Keeble Sutton of Cookeville.

Also traveling a great distance for Dunavin's birthday were nephew's Leonard and Edward Bilbrey of Jamestown and Maryville and Charles Dunavin of Elm Wood.

The following day, a lunch was hosted by Dunavin's wife and family at the home of his niece, Fontella Gardner, in Las Animas, Colo. Over 50 family members gathered to enjoy the food and fellowship.

A TRIBUTE: By Freeman N. Hick:

Born March 1, 1881, to June 26, 1979, seems like a long time upon this earth, it was: 98 years, three months and 26 days. A. H. Crawford, better known to the multitude of friends as Hawkins Crawford, died June 26, truly of pioneer stock.

Mr. Crawford was born near Baxter, Tennessee when log cabins were in style, when times were rough. He not only saw history made in Putnam County, he helped make history by his community work, leadership in whichever community he lived and by his church work.

Mr. Crawford raised an exalted family of 10 sons and two daughters. All children were outstanding in their chosen field of work. He was one of the best carpenters that ever "hit a nail on the head," and two of his sons follow the occupation today and are among the best in the business.

He was county surveyor for many years here in Putnam County, and also operated a large dairy farm with the help of one son who is still farming the family farm in the Union Grove community.

Mr. Crawford not only lived in the Union Grove community, he gave an acre of land on which the present Union Grove church now stands. He was an faithful Christian, an elder in the United Presbyterian Church since August 20, 1927.

His church at Union Grove and the sole Presbyterian Church of Middle Tennessee salutes the faithful leadership for the good work he has done for the cause of Christianity. His leadership, his manual labor and his gifts of property have been a blessing to the church, to the community, the county and to all mankind.

Where there be praise, and there is much deserving praise, think on these doings; his renowned family, his Christian leadership and devotion and a longevity upon the land of Putnam County, Tennessee.

Universal Connections Ode to Mom and Dad

The call came late on the longest winter night. The same day as the winter solstice in 2020—a transitional year. Saturn and Jupiter were in conjunction and the universe promised another. My hope: no matter what this night brings, sunrise will speak to renewal. Pray for Mom tonight. We need more kind souls like Ms. Helen. Time shortened ‘Helen Ruth’ to a single name, a nod to many distractions. Dad often called for simpler times—more kindness and caring. They labored for a better world for everyone—I love them for it. Many things I’ll never know rest on what they told and taught— Denise, Josie—we all benefited from strong family bonds. Grandparents and cousins, more friends and blessings. The town and citizens were textbook; freedoms and talents flourished. We were blessed with a wonderful family and a perfect place to live. Loving parents taught us the value of empathy and compassion. And the need for a sustainable planet—for everyone—we’re equal. History’s lesson: much work is required but God’s green earth is worth it. In later years, Mom really missed Dad and her sister Lucye—and going to church. She would want me to tell everyone how much she loved family and friends. And Gainesboro, Jackson County, Twin Lakes, Free State, Roaring River . . . Everyone knew: Ms. Helen Ruth never met a stranger. Mom appreciated her caregivers—they did everything but turn back time. The pandemic kept us apart—the arc of age kept us from talking but we communicated. Separated by a thousand miles, we still were close, closer in some ways—I sensed it. Mom, when you find Dad . . . and Aunt Lucye, I’ll know you’re at peace. Ashes to ashes. Light to dark to light. Hugs and kisses from afar. One last time before you go. Love you always— Edward

I never knew my grandfather. He died in an auto accident 10 years before I was born. Her is his obituary from the Putnam County Herald, Thursday July 16, 1931, Cookeville, TN.

Pedestrian Killed While On Way To See Sick Father:

Walter Gentry, 40, struck by auto on Highway No. 24 Saturday night. While walking to Baxter, Walter Gentry, 40, of Cleveland, TN, was instantly killed at 10:30 Saturday night when he was struck by a car driven by Roy McCawley, 20 year old son of John L. McCawley, of Gainesboro, on Highway No. 24 two miles west of Cookeville. Gentry was on his way to see his father, Cy (Silas Henry Gentry), who is believed dying. Gentry had come to Cookeville from Cleveland, and stopped at John Cornwell's filling station near the Cookeville city limit before continuing his journey. He had walked about a mile from the filling station when he met his death. McCawley with Braxton, Sadler of Jellico, on his way to Gainesboro and it was said that lights of an approaching car blinded him and he never saw Gentry.

Gentry's left leg was torn off just below the knee and his skull was crushed. Funeral services were held at the Maxwell cemetery, Sunday afternoon, Rev. B. M. Harness officiating. Gentry is survived by his wife and a number of children and his parents.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 16 July 1931

I found Walter and Margaret Anne in the 1920 census of Smith County, TN 9th district, living with five of their children, working as a farm laborer. Then in 1930 census, Bradley County, TN, Cleveland Ward 3, they were living on Wilson Ave. Walter was working as a grinder in a stove foundry. I believe this to be Hardwick's Stove Co. as my father and two of his brothers also worked at Hardwick's

Car Driven by Roy McCawley Strikes Gentry; Accident Unavoidable.

Walter Gentry, 45, of Cleveland, Tenn., was instantly killed Saturday night about 9:30 when he was struck by an automobile driven by Roy McCawley.

the accident occurred about one mile this side of Cookeville near the residence of Will Maynard on Highway 24.

Mr. Gentry was walking along the highway and as Mr. McCawley was passing another car going toward Cookeville his car struck Mr. Gentry killing him instantly.

Mr. McCawley never saw Mr. Gentry until after he had struck him and his companion Chas. Sadler, of Onida, told him he had struck a man. He immediately turned around and went back to and the body was found at the side of the road.

From all accounts it is evident that this was one of those unavoidable accidents and while greatly to be regretted could not have been avoided by the driver of the car.

The body of Mr. Gentry was taken to Cookeville and from there removed to Baxter where funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon.

COOKEVILLE - Visitation with the family of Joe Maxwell Ferrell, 74, of Cookeville, will be held Sunday, May 29, from 1-5 p.m. at Whitson Funeral Home in Cookeville. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Mr. Ferrell passed away at home and surrounded by family on Monday, March 23, 2016, after a battle with cancer.

He was born March 7, 1942, in the Bloomington Springs community to the late Hulon and Opal Maxwell Ferrell.

Mr. Ferrell is survived by his wife of nearly 52 years, Patti Raines Ferrell; daughter and son-in-law, Amanda and Brad Spencer of Benton, Ariz.; adored grandson, Owen Spencer of Benton, Ariz.; dear friends, Jasper and Cheryl McWilliams of Cookeville; and the gang at Ralph's Donut Shop.

Mr. Ferrell was often described as "a character." For those old enough to understand the reference, he was one-half Grizzly Adams and one-half Fred Sanford. A graduate of Tennessee Tech, he decided early on that a desk job wasn't for him. Instead, the self-taught carpenter and craftsman spent many happy years in the construction and remodeling business. He was well-read and could often be found reading poetry, historical accounts, novels, and encyclopedias late into the night. Mr. Ferrell also enjoyed storytelling, playing golf, gardening, hunting, and just sitting outside watching the birds and squirrels. He was funny, generous, stubborn, talented, loving, and quirky, and he is greatly missed.

319. JAMES ALVIN "JIMMY"⁵ MCKINNEY (BONNIE MAE⁴ MAXWELL, JOEL WHITTEN "WHIT"³, DAVID WOOD (SR.)², SAMUEL¹) was born December 20, 1939 in Elmwood, TN, and died April 20, 2016 in Elmwood, TN. He married REBECCA ANN "BECKY" WILKERSON November 23, 1969 in Smith Co., TN. She was born in Hogans Creek Community.

Notes for JAMES ALVIN "JIMMY" MCKINNEY:

Mr. Jimmy McKinney, age 76, of Elmwood, died Wednesday evening, April 20, at his home. He is survived by: wife Becky McKinney; daughter, Leslie Antle and husband Les of Elmwood; son, Chris McKinney of Baxter; brother, Jere McKinney and wife Jimmie of Elmwood; 2 granddaughters, Kittie Pearl and Sunnie Maria Antle.

At his request, Mr. McKinney will be cremated and there will be no formal service.

Becky and children, our hearts are broken; before B & B closed, it was our second home, and Becky & Jimmy were our Aunt and Uncle, at table 2. B & B was one of few restaurants without the fast pace of modern life, and with smiles from Jimmy & Becky, who made you feel like family. We have missed you both so much since B & B closed, and now our Uncle Jimmy has gone to heaven. Our thoughts are with you, and we pray each day will get a little easier.

Kerry and Laura Reasonover

B & B Drive-In
421 Cookeville Hwy
Elmwood, TN 3856

A retired Elmwood Community businessman, loving daddy & Pa and lifelong resident, Mr. Jimmy McKinney, died at the age of 76 at 8:20 p.m. Wednesday evening April 20, 2016 at his Elmwood home with his wife at his bedside. He was pronounced dead at 9:25 p.m. and was under the loving care of Gentiva Hospice of Cookeville.

Mr. McKinney had fought a battle with Parkinson's disease for the last several years and two and a half weeks prior to his death he suffered a bad fall.

At Mr. McKinney's request he will be cremated and no services will be held. The cremation will take place at Cumberland Family Services in Algood.

One of four sons of the late Alvin Bonnell "Panama" McKinney who died August 13, 1972 at the age of 62 and Bonnie Mai Maxwell McKinney who died February 25, 2006 at the age of 91, he was born James Alvin McKinney in Elmwood on December 20, 1939.

Two brothers preceded him in death, Johnny McKinney who died at birth on July 8, 1954 and Jack Maxwell McKinney who died at the age of 73 on April 4, 2005.

He was also preceded in death by a nephew, Jackie Raye McKinney who died August 16, 1998 at the age of 22.

Mr. McKinney's education career spanned from eight years at the former Elmwood Elementary School, to graduating in 1958 from Smith County High School where he majored in mathematics and science. In the 1958 Owl yearbook it was said of Jimmy "I believe that man will not merely endure, he will prevail". He also attended Tennessee Technological University for one year.

He was employed for about three years with his father, Panama, who was a well-known skilled carpenter in the area and one of his major projects was the construction of the Sanderson Funeral Home in Carthage in 1955 and 1956.

In 1961 his mother opened the B & B Drive-in on Hwy. 70 near Horseshoe Bend Lane in Elmwood where he became best known as the friendly face of the B & B Drive-in. He became quite famous for his milkshakes, delicious ice cream, juicy burgers and sense of humor.

Along with the good food and sense of humor, he befriended many people over the years and at times was known to dispense a little advice with his humor and food. Those years at B & B were a real joy to him and he truly enjoyed talking to and getting to know his customers. He always had a smile and a friendly greeting for anyone who walked through his door. His good humor and friendly disposition will be remembered with fondness by all the friends he made and the lives he touched.

A writing by Joseph Addison describes the impact Jimmy had on the lives of others "What sunshine is to flowers, smiles are to humanity. These are but trifles, to be sure; but scattered along life's pathway, the good they do is inconceivable."

On November 23, 1969 he entered into a lifetime union in marriage to Hogans Creek Community native, the former Rebecca Ann "Becky" Wilkerson. They were wed by Eld. James Thomas Gibbs at the home of A. J. and Louise Grisham.

When his health began to fail he retired on December 20, 2014 on his 75th birthday from the restaurant career that had been his life following fifty four years of serving the public.

Mr. McKinney's hobbies over the years included quail hunting with his beloved bird dogs, playing poker and pool with his buddies, collecting and hunting Indian relics, metal detecting, collecting old coins, walking the hill where he grew up, watching sports of almost any kind, swinging on the back porch, whittling and spending time with his precious grandbabies, whom he absolutely adored.

Surviving in addition to his wife of over forty six years, is their daughter Leslie Maria McKinney Antle and husband Les of Elmwood; their son Christopher James "Chris" McKinney of Baxter; brother, Jere McKinney and wife Jimmie Mathis McKinney of Elmwood; two grandbabies who meant the world to him, Kittie Pearl Antle and Sunnie Maria Antle also of Elmwood; nieces, Pam, Sandy and Debbie and the countless friends he made during his fifty four years at the B & B.

She married CLYDE W. WEST. He was born September 20, 1908, and died October 20, 1980 in Sylvester, Worth Co., GA.

Notes for EMMA MAXWELL:

Mrs Emma Maxwell West, 25, daughter of Mr & Mrs Virgil Maxwell of the 16th district, may have heard her own funeral sermon Monday afternoon, and there might be a possibility that she was buried alive Tuesday morning.

She died at the home of her parents late Sunday night. It was said here that Mrs West took poison to 'get away from continual arguments' in which her family participated.

Mrs West was prepared for burial and funeral services were being conducted by the Rev J H Roberson. Rev Roberson said that Mrs West was not dead when services were being conducted. Just before burial was to take place, Mrs West's casket was opened to give relatives and friends a last look at her remains.

Mrs West's hand was seen to turn over and a slight shift was noted in her body.

Her pulse was still beating, and Dr J M Wheeler, notified of the incident, advised the return of Mrs West to her home to await further developments. Her body was warm, witnesses said, and Rev Roberson declared that her flesh was pliant, just as any live person's.

She was returned to her parents home and final rites were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday morning when burial took place.

Lying in a stupor, or perhaps in a state of semi-consciousness, it was possible that Mrs West heard her funeral services, although no scientific theory has been applied to her case. Residents of the neighborhood were moved by the incident, which has attracted much comment there.

It was said that while her body was being prepared for burial, both her eyes opened and showed the light of life. They were closed.

Boyd Carrington, employee of the Ideal Grocery here, said he did not believe Mrs West committed suicide. Mrs West was Carrington's cook for 20 months. Carrington said she went home Christmas Eve and that she had influenza. "She had flu and drank too much paregoric", he said.

Putnam County Herald January 12, 1933

Virgil Maxwell, father of Mrs Emma Maxwell West, who was reported in the Herald last Thursday as having committed suicide 'because of family arguments' has denied that his daughter ever took an intentional overdose of poison and that his family indulged in no such arguments.

Mr Maxwell said there 'was no truth' to the statement that she committed suicide and that every word of their having family trouble is false. He said, however, that she did leave a note which read as follows: "Mama, I have stood it as long as I can. I want you to raise Cloyd. I want to give Irene my coat and new dress and Audrey a part of my clothes. I want you to sing 'Will you Miss Me When I'm Gone?'. Bury me by the side of little sister. I want Brother Roberson to hold my funeral."

Dr Alex Dyer declared that Mrs West died of yellow jaundice and a nervous breakdown.

Notes for JAMES FOWLER MAXWELL:

James Fowler Maxwell

September 23, 1931 - October 1, 2020

Rumor has it that there was a ruckus at the Pearly Gates recently; crowds gathered in excitement on October 1 as Jim Maxwell left his frail body behind, and was enveloped into the arms of the Savior he had served for so long and so well.

It makes us happy to imagine the hundreds of grateful folks that were there in heaven because of Jim's lifelong witness; it must have been a glorious reunion! But here on earth we will miss our gentle, yet fearless, husband, dad, grandfather, brother, brother-in-law, and friend.

James Fowler Maxwell was born on September 23, 1931, the firstborn of Solon and Mary Eliza- beth (Rodgers) Maxwell and big brother to Ruth. A child of the Depression, Jim learned to work long days on the farm. Early on, a commitment to serving the Lord interlaced his character and formed the foundation of his life of integrity. Jim's was a sensitive and artistic nature. But he also was also quietly stubborn, even fearless, when he decided something needed doing.

Unlike most kids in Baxter, Jim went to college, first at Tennessee Tech, then graduating from UT Knoxville in 1956, earning a degree in Agricultural Education. After graduation he served in the Army, and was stationed in Texas.

On one visit home in 1957, Jim retrieved the dropped purse of a pretty, dark-eyed girl he met on a homebound Trailways bus. They shared an admiration for the natural landscape outside the bus windows; he was forever smitten. On June 7, 1959, Jim and Glenna Marie Kerley were mar- ried, launching a love story that flourished for over 61 years.

Jim was a pioneer in the burgeoning Nashville music scene; he opened Globe Recording Stu- dio (the second recording studio in Nashville) in 1960 on Broadway in Nashville, next to the Ryman Auditorium. In the early 70s, Globe was the first in the city to introduce high speed tape duplication and later, to offer cassette tape duplication. In his sixties, Jim went back to school to earn his funeral director license, and then purchased and operated his own funeral home.

Jim loved Glenna. Together they raised four kids, ran their businesses, worked the garden, and traveled the country. Through joys and sorrows they were devoted to one another, saying "I love you" often. Glenna brought Jim his Cokes (his only vice). Dad would get flirty with her, and she would giggle. (As kids, we would roll our eyes, but secretly we liked it.) Mom was the shelter for Dad's deep and tender heart. Until the days just before he entered heaven Dad called Mom his "sweet thing" and held her hand.

Jim (Dad) made sure his kids and grandkids knew that they were special; no one heard "I love you" more from their Dad than his kids did. He was proud of us, always encouraging our en- deavors. His 11 grandchildren brought him special joy. His example of honesty, integrity, and gentle kindness shaped our characters. We will miss his faithful prayers that have covered us throughout our lives.

The bedrock of Jim's life was his unshakeable faith - as a Gideon he traveled to speak the Gospel; he led the deacon board and counseling program for new Christians at Two Rivers Bap- tist Church. He had a passion for sharing Christ, even to strangers. As he grew older he didn't give up; he had cards printed with the Gospel message, and left thousands anonymously in public restrooms.

Jim was creative. He won an award for songwriting, and liked to paint both landscapes and ab- stracts. He had a talent for design. Once he surprised us by performing an original rap for us called "The Maxwell Clan, Ya'll", backwards baseball cap and all.

Surviving Jim are his wife, Glenna, children Pippa, Brad, Amber and Britt, and their spouses Jonathan, Kate, Chris and Laura, grandchildren Samantha, Oliver, Sophia, Maxwell, Cassandra, Ellis, Sydney, Avery, Abigail, Evelyn, and Savannah, and sister Ruth and her husband, Doyle Taubert.

We have been honored to have known and loved Jim Maxwell; there are not many still like him. Rest well, good and faithful servant. We will see you again one day soon.

A graveside service will take place at 3:00 PM on Sunday, October 4, at the Maxwell Cemetery on Baxter Road in Baxter, followed by a outdoor Celebration of Jim's life with light refreshments served. If desired, flowers may be sent to Cole & Garrett Funeral Home.

From I-40 take Exit 280 and go south on Baxter Road. Maxwell Cemetery will be approximately 1/2 mile on your left, just past house #3486. The Celebration of Life will take place at the Taubert's home (#3486 Baxter Road).

Please note that social distancing opportunities will be provided in recognition of the health and safety of all guests; to create the safest opportunities to honor Jim and support Glenna we request that guests wear face coverings throughout the events.

Notes for JOHN WALTER ANDERSON:

Son of Elmer George Anderson and Judy Patricia Rains, grandson of John Wilford Rains and Theo Ennis Maxwell Rains, George Wilber Anderson and Marjorie Florence Cooper Anderson Beck. Uncle of Matthew Allen Marler.

John's mother was in labor with John on Christmas Eve and not wanting to miss Santa with his two older sisters their parents hurriedly opened gifts. His dad talked about this being one of two times (the younger two children's births) he was able to run all the red lights in San Francisco (with a Police escort for John's delivery.) John Walter was named after both grandfathers. He was loving called Baby John John by his sisters. It was said that John died from hemophilia but he died sick to his stomach, not bleeding. Years later his mom said with current knowledge that she thought he died from being poisoned by hexachlorophene. It was a very popular over the counter cleanser at the time and he was bathed in pHisoHex daily from birth. (bio by: Marjie Anderson)

She passed away peacefully in her home on August 18, 2017 at the age of 95. Fontella was born in Las Animas, Colorado and lived at the homestead 23 miles south of Las Animas until she was 2 years old. They lived several places in and around Las Animas, including the jail, when Casto became sheriff from 1933 to 1939. Fontella went to school at Melonfield, Frey School, Columbian and graduated from Bent County High School in the class of 1939. She joined the U.S. Cadet Nurse Corps for 2.5 years in Pueblo. World War II ended and a young man, Loyde Gardner returned and proposed marriage. On December 17, 1945, they were married in the Methodist Church in Las Animas. After a long honeymoon to California, they returned home in Keller Community. Here they farmed and raised their family.

Fontella was active in the community; teaching 4-H Home Nursing and cooking. She won Top Homemaker both in the county and state. Fontella helped with 4-H talent acts that also won state honors. She was a member of the Home Demonstration Club until it became inactive after 100 years. In 1953 the Kitchen Klutter Band was born. Notes for LOYDE PHILIP GARDNER:

Funeral services for Loyde Gardner will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, January 11, 2016 at the First United Methodist Church in Las Animas, Colorado. Pastor Mark Cloer will officiate. Interment will follow at the Bent/Las Animas Cemetery.

Loyde Philip Gardner was born on October 13, 1919 at home north of Wiley, Colorado to Emma (Reyher) and Philip Gardner. He passed away at his home near Las Animas, Colorado on January 5, 2016.

As a boy Loyde and his parents farmed in Wiley, Colorado, later moving to Center, Colorado where they grew potatoes. Much of the farming was done by teams of horses and mules. Because of the poor prices, they left an entire harvested potato crop and headed to California, camping in a tent along the way. Next, they moved to Oregon where they operated a grocery store and a motel. The family returned to Colorado to farm in Horse Creek where Loyde attended school up until his 8th grade year.

Loyde joined the Army at the beginning of WWII. After boot camp, he was assigned to the 1st Cavalry 99th Battalion, traveling across the US with a train load of mules and soldiers. He received additional training at Camp Hale near Leadville, Colorado in the winter, and was sent off to defend our country in the South Pacific. While in the service, Loyde's decorations and citations included the Good Conduct Medal, American Service Medal, Philippine Liberation Ribbon with 2 Bronze Service Stars, and Bronze Service Arrowhead Pacific Theater. Upon returning from the war, Loyde married his forever love, Fontella Dunavin on December 17, 1945, and to this union, 8 children were born. Loyde and Fontella recently celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary.

Loyde was a very accomplished farmer. He farmed in the Keller Community, Southeast of Las Animas, Colorado, raising watermelons, cantaloupes, chickens, sheep, cattle, hay, sugar beets, vegetables, corn, wheat, and cleaned alfalfa seed. He also did custom combining and land leveling. He improved irrigation practices and the land. Among his many accomplishments, Loyde was selected Top Conservationist in 1984, voted Farm Family of the year in 1990, and Grand Marshall of the Santa Fe Trail Day Parade in 2012 along with Fontella. He served many years on the Consolidated Extension Water Board, was a 4-H Tractor Leader, and was instrumental in obtaining the 1st Calvary Division Memorial on Highway 10.

Loyde enjoyed fishing, boating, dancing, singing, reading/writing stories, and sharing memories with his friends and family. He was proud of his family and their hard work. Many people who had worked on the Gardner farm came back and told them they had positively impacted their lives by instilling good decision making, the importance of being honest, working hard, and loving your country.

Loyde is survived by his loving wife, Fontella (Dunavin) Gardner; children; Donna (Kenneth) Dodson, Alvin "Bud" (Linda) Gardner, Peggy (Raymond) Fritz, Glenda (George) Yarnell, Earl (Annette) Gardner, Larry (Gayle) Gardner, Pam Reyher, David (Stephanie) Gardner; 17 grandchildren; 21 great grandchildren; and 2 great-great grandchildren.

Loyde was preceded in death by his parents, Philip and Emma Gardner; brother, Roy Gardner; infant sister, Helen Gardner; and grandson, Joshua Gardner.

Loyde will be deeply missed by his wife, family, many friends, and neighbors.
God bless you, Loyde and may the angels carry you to your new home.

Memorial contributions may be made in Loyde's honor to The Josh Gardner Memorial Scholarship Fund in care of Horber Funeral Chapel, P.O. Box 431, Las Animas, CO, 81054.

MAXWELL- NORRIS WEDDING

Elizabeth Louise Norris and Douglas Lesley Maxwell Jr. were married Oct. 19 at the Family Life Center of Algood United Methodist Church in a Messianic Jewish ceremony officiated by Putnam County Clerk Wayne Nabors.

The bride is the daughter of David and Candy Norris of Algood.

The bride wore a white dress as well as a tiara and veil and carried a bouquet of white and blue roses and baby's breath.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Tabathia Walker. Other attendants included Misty Watson and Crystal Dishman.

The groom wore a traditional Talit (prayer shawl), Kippah (yarmulke), white shirt, blue necktie and black dress slacks.

Attending the groom as best man was Glen Michael Russell. Other attendants included Matthew Dishman and Michael Dolan Russell, son of the best man.

The informal ceremony, led by the groom, began after the traditional bridal procession and the giving away of the bride by her parents. The bride walked seven times around the groom, symbolizing the seven matriarchs of the Messianic Jewish father: Eve, Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, Tamar, Ruth and Esther. The couple then lit the unity candle and moved under the traditional Chuppah (wedding canopy), where they stood for the remainder of the ceremony. The groom gave the sermon of the Meaning of Marriage.

The bride and groom spoke their own confessions and ring vows and exchanged wedding bands.

Traditional Jewish wedding music was played during the reception, where the wedding cake was decorated with depictions of menorahs on the sides. The couple dances to "Matchmaker, Matchmaker" from "Fiddler on the Roof," and the groom read the 23rd Psalm from the New American Standard Bible.

The couple resides in Algood, TN.

Notes for MATTHEW ALLEN "MATT" MARLER:

Matt loved cars, big trucks, earth moving machines, tractors, and similar vehicles. He loved blowing raspberries on his sister's tummy to make her laugh. Before she could crawl, he crawled up and down the hall circling her until she herself learned to crawl. In January, 1982, Matthew was hospitalized at Sacred Heart Children's Hospital in Pensacola for two weeks with pneumonia. Just after that, he broke his leg. In 1984, a lymph node in his neck began to swell, and he was put on antibiotics. Two weeks later, he was hospitalized at West Florida Hospital in Pensacola because he couldn't stand, keep food down, and had an enlarged lymph node. A biopsy was done on the lymph node, but the results were inconclusive. His doctors ran many tests to exclude Lymphoma and Non-Hodgkins, and decided he must have Cat Scratch Disease (thought to be viral at that time, but is now known to be bacterial). His doctors stopped giving him antibiotics, as they didn't seem to be helping. He began having seizures on September 21, and was moved to Neuro Intermediate Care, and then to Intensive Care, where he coded on September 22, around 2:00 am, and was put on a respirator. He had an ICP probe inserted, which showed intracellular swelling of the brain. Tests were done for blood flow on September 23, and it was determined he had none to his brain. On September 24, after his grandparents said goodbye, artificial life support was removed and he died peacefully in his mother's arms. His funeral Mass was at St. Anne's Catholic Church Bellview and he was buried in Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery.
