

Reggie Mazerres Obt.

HIRAM, GEORGIA — Reggie Mazerres, 85, of Dallas, Georgia, passed away Sunday, Dec. 15, 2019.

He was born Feb. 15, 1934, in Metairie Ridge, Louisiana, to his late parents, Gaston and Irma Mazerres. Mr. Mazerres was a professor for Tennessee Technological University for 38 years and was a member of Saint Vincent De Paul Catholic Church in Dallas, Georgia. He also bravely served in the United States Navy during the Korean War. In his free time, Reggie was an avid golfer and a Rotary Club member.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Margaret Mazerres and Nettie Boudreaux; and his brother, Gaston Mazerres.

Survivors include his loving wife, Jeanette Mazerres of Dallas, Georgia; sons, Mike (Angie) Mazerres of Orlando, Florida, Joe Mazerres of Nashville, Tennessee; daughter, Susie (Glen) Hullander of Dallas, Georgia; sisters, Leverta (Lisa) Hines of Thibodaux, Louisiana, and Wanda Ketner of Livingston, Texas; grandchildren, Anais (Will) Hodge and Adelai Wolfe-Mazerres, both of Nashville; and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service for Mr. Reggie Mazerres will be held Monday, Jan. 6, 2020, at 11 a.m. (EST) from the Clark Funeral Home Chapel with Father Adrian Pleus officiating. Interment will follow the service at The Georgia National Cemetery at 3 p.m. (EST).

In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully asks that donations be made to Tennessee Technological University in loving memory of Professor Mazerres.

To leave online condolences for the family, please feel free to visit our website at www.samclarkfuneralhome.com.

Clark Funeral Home in Hiram, Georgia, is in charge of arrangements, 770-445-7133.

*Read more about the people and places in Putnam Co., TN at:
<http://www.ajlambert.com>