

CARR'S CHAPEL ELEMENTARY, PUTNAM CO., TN ca. 1940

Students at Carr's Chapel Elementary pose for a school portrait sometime in the 1940s. The students are, front row, from left, Charlie Thomas, Jr., Arnold Palmer, Harry Anderson, Harvey D. Thomas, unknown, Jerry Herren, and O'Neal Herd. Second row, from left, Freida Sadler, Keeble Phillips, Creola Palmer, Lorene Palmer, Birtha Carr, Lorene Maxwell, Vallie Ruth Sadler, Arbelle Hamilton, Hilda Cooper and Glenna Cooper. Third row, from left, Collie Hall, G. V. Thomas, Ollie Hall, Truman Waddell, Coy Sadler, and Bob Sadler. Back row, from left, Rowand D. Anderson, Agnes Davidson, Frances Wallace, Gelema Carr, Zura Mae Huddleston, Geneva Henley, Katie Bell Hall, Dorothy Herren, and Virginia Thomas. Built by the WPA in 1939, Carr's Chapel School was located between Boma and Silver Point in western Putnam County, Tennessee. Photo submitted by Keeble (Phillips) Tucker, d/o William Calvin "Bill" Phillips & Vennie Webb.

Herald-Citizen, Sunday, 4 September 2005, pg. B-1.

Additional information: Others have identified as follows: third from the left, front row, Paul Palmer, Harry Anderson, Harvey D. Thomas and the unidentified boy is William Hutchinson.