Dear Tim,

After nineteen years, the Lord has permitted me to write a few more lines in your book.

Many things have happened down thro the years. But lets re-live the happy memories - and trust for a bright future.

I love you.
Mother.

★ Jan. 17, 1937, Sunday afternoon

We had a big rain and you set the across the creek and got into a hole. Mother wants you to be a good boy and always tell the truth, try to keep good company, and make a man I will be proud of in later years.

Try to study as much as you can. For the time will come when you will see your mistake if you don't.

Always remember mother loves you more than you think. Honor thy father + mother. Your mother.
