

MYSTERY OF FARLEY SEMINARY SCHOOL

By Megan Trotter

The historic Farley Seminary School was located on Hwy. 84, south of Monterey and just north of Mill Creek Road.

The people in the community have heard the name, Farley Seminary School, but no one remembers anything about it.

The Farley Seminary Cemetery is located nearby.

The last known burial was in 1897. There are several unmarked graves.

There are 15 legible tombstones.

One grave, in particular, the resident was named Thomas Williams who was born in 1757 and died in 1830. When he was buried in this cemetery, Andrew Jackson was President, and Putnam County hadn't been created yet.

@: Anyone with information on Farley Seminary School can contact the Archives at 520-0042.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: Sunday, 20 November 2016

*Read more about the schools of Putnam Co., TN & surrounding areas at:
<http://www.ajlambert.com>