

Brenda Brooks (Floyd) Perkins Obt.

MADISON -- Funeral services for Brenda Brooks Perkins, 51, of Whites Creek, were held at 11:30 a.m. today, Mon., July 26, from the chapel of Madison Funeral Home. Burial was in Hermitage Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Perkins died on Fri., July 23, 1999, in Mt. Juliet, from injuries sustained while trying to stop a rolling vehicle with her grandson in it from rolling into the street.

She was born on Sept. 3, 1947, in Madison to Eunita Shanks Floyd Denton of Old Hickory and the late Thomas (Tom) Floyd. Mrs. Perkins was a homemaker. She was a 1965 graduate of Dupont High School, where she starred on the basketball team.

In addition to her mother, her family also includes her husband, Richard Perkins of Whites Creek; two daughters, Amy Brooks of Old Hickory and Lisa Brooks of Mt. Juliet; a sister, Donna Carter of Indiana; a grandson, Dylan Webb; an aunt, Juanita Shanks Grisham of Memphis; and a host a cousins from Putnam County.

In addition to her father, she was also preceded in death by her grandparents, Van and Ellen Maynard Shanks; and aunts and uncles, Mary Boyd, Auda Brewington, Erma Denney, Catherine Anderson, Virgil, Haskell, Floyd and Fred Shanks Sr., all formerly of the Boma Community.

Memorial contributions may be made to Madison Children's Home, c/o Madison Church of Christ, or your favorite charity.

Buck Dozier and Danny Hall officiated at the services.

Information provided by Baxter Chapel of Hooper & Huddleston Funeral Home.

Published July 26, 1999 2:31 PM CDT : Herald Citizen Newspaper, Cookeville, TN

<http://www.ajlambert.com>