Taken from my records, recollection & deductions.

Purpose is to locate McDonald Wallace in 1870 because Audrey June couldn't locate him in the 1870 census. He was sometimes called McDaniel & McWallace.

1820, Hugh Wallace built a cabin at Silver Point

1/2/1826 to 4/8/1876 – Tombstone = 50 yrs. old, McDonald

1838 born & d. February 1872 = 33 yrs. old, Julia Ann (Hendleys)

1849 California Gold Rush

1860 McDonald Wallace living next to parents Hugh & Nancy (Jared) Wallace.

McDonald is a bachelor, age 34. There must have been another house on the property. The cabin may have been crowded.

1862-65 Civil War

1865 Reconstruction & Hard Times

1865 Hugh Wallace & Nancy (Jared) Wallace are married by now.

1866 Hugh & Nancy Wallace may have had 3 issue who died by now.

1866 Josephine Wallace was born 10 October 1866

1867 Petty Wallace was born 1867

1869 William Wallace was born 7 July 1869

1870 Census McDonald Wallace missed or missing? Not in Putnam Co., TN.

I feel that he is here or close by but missed in the census.

1872 Third child to live, Matilda Wallace born 23 January 1872

3 weeks later.....

1872 15 February 1872, Julia Ann Henley wife of McDonald Wallace dies, age 34.
Epidemic of 'flux', which killed many people*

1873 31 July 1873, Nancy (Jared) Wallace, mother of McDonald Wallace, wife of Hugh Wallace died at the age of 78.

1876 8 April 1876, McDonald Wallace dies and the age of 50.

1877 5 November 1798, father of McDonald Wallace, husband of Nancy Jared, Hugh Wallace, died at the age of 78.

*including my GGGrand-Dad, Riley Anderson & two of his daughters.
