Catherine's half-uncle. John L. Huddleston is thought to have died during the Civil War during Confederate Service. John L. Huddleston was forced to swear the oath of allegiance for the Union and post a bond that he would not aid the confederacy. A Union officer stationed at Carthage, Tennessee kept a record of at least some of the Confederates that were forced to swear the oath of allegiance and post a bond. John was bushwacked in 1864 right after he returned from the Civil War. One theory is that he was shot by fellow southern sympathizers because he signed the Oath of Allegiance in the United States too quickly.

Notes for HORACE SULLIVAN WINFREE:

Dock Winfree Dies at His Home in Warren County, Tennessee

Mr. Horace Sullivan "Dock" Winfree died last Thursday afternoon, March 10, 1938, at his home in the Short Mountain community. He was born July 2, 1847 in Cove Hollow in the fifteenth district of DeKalb County, where he spent the early portion of his life. He later bought a farm in the 16th district and remained there until 1920 when he moved near Short Mountain in Warren County and lived there until his death.

Mr. Winfree was a life-long member of the Methodist Church and a Mason (member of Smith Fork Lodge, Lancaster, TN).

He was first married to Mary Jane Stephens, and to this union four children were born: William F. died in Colbert, Okla., in 1916; Robert Solon died in Maderia, Calif., in 1917; Fannie E. Braswell died at Wichita Falls, Texas, in 1901.

Sixty years ago he married Mary Josephine Brock and to this union eight children were born. One, Mary J. Dunn, died in 1911.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Josie Winfree, and five sons: J.A. Winfree, Buffalo Valley, TN; Chas. N. Winfree of Daylight, Tenn.; Ben Winfree who lived with his father at time of his death; Homer Winfree of Baxter, and Archie M. Winfree of Washington D.C.; many grandchildren and other relatives.

He was the youngest son of Benjamin F. and Judith Winfree, and had two brothers, William R. and Henry Lucas, one sister, Fannie E. Christian, all of whom preceded him to the grave by more than 25 years.

He will rest in the family cemetery, the scene of his boyhood days, a portion of the original farm settled by his father. His grandparents came from Roanoke, VA and settled on the Cumberland River near Carthage, Tenn.

Mr. Winfree was very active throughout his life until last December when his health began to fail. All his children and other relatives were called to his bedside in February when it seemed that the end was near, but he recuperated and appeared to be on the road to recovery, when he suffered a relapse.
